Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes	The purpose of Forfar Stingers Para-Football Club is to advance public participation in sport, specifically focusing on promoting, teaching, and developing the game of football for individuals living with disabilities. Our core objective is to improve the physical health, mental well-being, social skills, and leadership potential of our members by providing a positive and safe sporting environment. By highlighting abilities rather

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period	During the 2025/2026 financial year, the club continued its vital weekly operations, delivering consistent, accessible training and development sessions for all of our players. Key highlights and performances from this year include: Community Fundraising Drives: The club successfully organized and ran major community events including a sponsored walk, an Asda bag pack initiative, and our annual gala stall, which collectively generated vital funding to keep player training affordable. Kit and technical Provisions: We invested heavily in updating club assets, successfully purchasing new match strips, teamwear, and essential sports equipment to ensure our players can compete safely and with pride. Coach Education: The club prioritized technical advancement by booking development and education training packages with Hampden Sports Clinic to boost our delivery standards. Civic Partnership: We established a working agreement with Angus council to maintain local public toilets facilities, helping ensure the area remains accessible and supporting the community's general public utilities.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	We ended the year with £1,018.50 in the bank. Our Chairman personally donated £1,000.00 to help club funds, and we earned 1,800.00 from our maintenance invoice to the council

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: • to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and • to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
