Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The association is a charitable unincorporated association and the purposes and administration arrangements are set out in our constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The AGM is held annually. The association trustees are appointed or re-appointed at the AGM.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The aims of the organisation are :

To promote and encourage, among young people, a practical interest in aviation and the Royal Air Force

To provide training that will be useful both in the Services and in civilian life.

To foster the spirit of adventure and to develop the qualities of leadership and good citizenship.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The association would provide financial support for cadet activities, however following Covid 19, and the restrictions placed, the squadron has been unable to fully re-open. Staff have moved away, and no replacements have yet been found.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

A decision on the future of the squadron is still under review.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Normally income is raised through cadet subscriptions, but due to the squadron not returning to face to face activities subscriptions have been suspended and expenditure has been reduced to nil.

Funds have been placed on deposit fttb.

Details of any deficit

Donated facilities and services (if any)

APPENDIX 1

Other optional information

The bulk of funds held by the charity have been placed on deposit pending a decision on the future of the unit.

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.
