Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The association is a charitable unincorporated association and the purposes and administration arrangements are set out in our constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The AGM is held annually. The association trustees are appointed or re-appointed at the AGM.

If local trustees are not identified then the North Scotland Wing Committee Trustees will be responsible for managing the funds, and OSCR returns.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The aims of the organisation are :

To promote and encourage, among young people, a practical interest in aviation and the Royal Air Force

To provide training that will be useful both in the Services and in civilian life.

To foster the spirit of adventure and to develop the qualities of leadership and good citizenship.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The association would provide financial and welfare support for cadet activities, that aren't funded by public money..

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The squadron re-opened for a short period, then was forced to close again due to staff shortages.

Cadets have joined other local squadrons and will remain there until a decision on the future of the 1383 squadron is made.

The Regional organisation with responsibility for the unit has conducted a review , and a decision was taken to keep the unit closed fttb.

A further review will be taken next year.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Normally income is raised through cadet subscriptions, fundraising and grants but due to the squadron being temporarily closed expenditure has now been reduced to nil and subscription payments will cease going forward.

Details of any deficit

There will be no further income or expenditure until the squadron re-opens.

Donated facilities and services (if any)

APPENDIX 1

Other optional information

The viability of the squadron will be reviewed by the parent organisation on an ongoing basis.

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Signed on behalf of the charity's trustees
