Name	Dates acted if not for whole year

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document	This is a charitable unincorporated association for the purposes and administration arrangements set out in our constitution.
Trustee recruitment and appointment	AGM is held annually, the Association's trustees are appointed, or reappointed, at the AGM.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes	The Aims of the ATC are: • To promote and encourage, among young people, a practical interest in aviation and the Royal Air Force. • To provide training that will be useful both in the Services and in civilian life. • To foster the spirit of adventure and to develop the qualities of leadership and good citizenship.
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	To ensure an active interest in public sports. To ensure an education and interest in the community and to be the best citizen possible. To engage with the local community to create a positive relationship.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period	During COVID the Sqn had to shut down and could not complete training face to face. The Sqn did its best to ensure on line training, with courses being delivered with online support. Mental Health and well-being was uppermost in the Commanding Officer's mind to ensure the cadets were safe and supported through the challenges COVID threw at the young adults. The Duke of Edinburgh Scheme was still very much a focus for the cadets.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	Small surplus due to intersect accrued and the cadets not being opened from being closed due to Covid 19.
