Charitable Purposes:

The advancement of environmental protection or improvement. Mankind is destroying the natural environment at an unprecedented rate, wiping out countless species and biodiversity in the process. Unless we do something about this, our children will inherit a much-diminished world devoid of many of the spectacular species and habitats that we have had the privilege of enjoying. This destruction must be halted, and nature given help and space to recover. The Blue Planet Rewilding Charity has been established to ensure it is. Its purpose is to promote for the benefit of the public the restoration of the natural environment, ecosystems, and biological diversity. The advancement of education. To educate the public about the damage that mankind has done to the natural environment and biodiversity, and the benefits that will accrue to it from restoring the natural environments and biodiversity we have lost.

Main Activities:

A website and social media accounts have been prepared. The Trustees hope to be in a position to formally launch the Charity in the first half of 2026

I report on the accounts set out on pages 1 - 2.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner:

The charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters.The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement:

In the course of my examination no matter has come to my attention which:

1) gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

    a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and;

    b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations.
