Chair's Report

The Project had a year in which new directions began to bear fruit.

The partnership between the project and children's author Barbara Henderson saw the publication of her book 'To War with Wallace' which encompassed a sizeable exploration of Andrew de Moray and the North Rising. The Scottish Books Council and the Project co-sponsored several school visits by Barbara.

Barbara is award winning and her children's tale was hugely well received in local schools. These lively 'lessons' opened many young ears in several local schools to the Andrew de Moray connection with Avoch. That partnership also opened doors to archaeological interest in helping to promote the annual commemoration at Ormond Hill.

Unfortunately, two of the key Project members, Charlie Beattie and Rob Gibson were no longer physically fit. As Charlie had built the cairn and tended it ever since, being unable to climb the hill was a loss. Rob Gibson's ligament problem with a knee plus his family's removal from the area made plans more difficult.

The long-running saga of changing bank signatories was still to be resolved at the end of the year. However, the bank balance is still healthy and the aforementioned creation of an information board for Ormond Hill is planned.

A priority for 2026 will be maintenance of the cairn and flagpole.

We are happy to collaborate with interested parties to increase the ownership of the project by young people in the local area.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the following requirements have not been met: • to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and • to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
