Structure, Governance and Management

The ASJCC is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) founded on 24th May 2016.

The President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary are elected by the members of ASJCC at the AGM. Other members of the management committee of ASJCC are co-opted.

The SCIO is governed under its Constitution and managed in accordance with the policies and procedures laid out in the ASJCC management manual.

The charitable purposes of the SCIO are to advance the Jewish religion, in particular through:

- i. Making arrangements for persons who regard themselves as Jewish and/or who follow the Jewish faith to participate in public Jewish worship and religious ceremonies within North East Scotland; and
- ii. Maintain a place for Jewish worship in North East Scotland.

Main activities in relation to these objectives:

Holding a range of Jewish services throughout the year;

Maintaining the Aberdeen Synagogue located at 74 Dee Street, Aberdeen

Running educational and community activities for the Jewish Community and local community groups; and Outreach to the wider non-Jewish community.

Achievement

ASJCC continues to have a monthly Shabbat morning service on the first Saturday of each month, as we have for several years. We also had several evening Shabbat events, with a short Friday night service followed by a “potluck” meal; we had excellent attendance at some of these, which was very encouraging.

We had events for Jewish holidays, including a Chanukah party, a Purim Megillah reading, a communal Sedar for Pesach, a cheesecake sharing event for Shavuot, services for the High Holidays (Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur), and events for Sukkot and Simchat Torah. Our service for the first night of Rosh Hashanah was again packed out (our sanctuary was full).

We had children’s events for some of the holidays, including Chanukah, Tu B’Shvat, Purim, Lag B’Omer, and High Holidays. We had several Havdalas on Saturday night for young adults.

We had several outdoor events, which some of our members prefer, including a social walk, a summer barbecue, a beach day at Carnoustie, and a Tashlich event for Rosh Hashanah by the River Dee.

We occasionally have Ladies teas for women in the community, and also started running Hebrew classes for interested members. Our book club continued to meet online throughout the year.

We helped educate the broader community about Judaism by hosting several visits by local schools, and opening our building for Doors Open Day. We supported the Aberdeen Muslim community after their mosque was vandalised. We are grateful to Aberdeen Council for their support in hosting a Chanukah event planned for December 2025.

We are very grateful for the support we have received from the wider UK Jewish community, including Jewish Council of Scotland, Matanah, Rabbi Rubin from Glasgow, Rabbi Rose from Edinburgh, and the Board of Deputies and Community Security Trust in London.

Unfortunately many of our members are worried by rising anti-semitism, especially after the Manchester attacks. We set up an anti-semitism action group, and had several meetings with members to discuss security issues. We also organised self-defense classes for interested members, and had a memorial for the Bibas family. We are grateful for the support we received from local police (we had several meetings with them) and politicians.

Building

We have a synagogue at 74 Dee St, which is categorised as a ‘B’ listed building in a conservation area. Fortunately we did not need to do major repair work to the building in this period. However, we may need to spend significant amounts addressing issues with windows in 2025-26.

Scottish Charity no SC046585

Independent Examiner's report to the Trustees of the Aberdeen Hebrew Congregation

I report on the accounts of the charity for the period ended 31 October 2025.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with these records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. Accounting records have not been kept in respect of the charity in accordance with Section (44) (1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations.
2. The accounts do not accord with these records.
3. The receipts and payments account and statement of balances do not comply with any of the requirements.

No matter has come to my attention in connection with the examination to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in the report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

There has been no material expenditure or action which appears not to be in accordance with the purpose of the charity.

I have received all necessary information required for me to carry out my examination of the charity's accounts.

There is no information contained in the statement of account that is inconsistent in any material respect with any report of the charity trustees prepared under section 44(1) (b) of the 2005 Act in respect of the period ended 31 October 2025.
