Structure Governance & Management

Constitution

Touched by Suicide Scotland is a constituted group set up in 2004 under the umbrella of Survivors of Bereavement by Suicide (SOBS) - Touched by Suicide.

Touched By Suicide Scotland SCIO52378

In 2008/09 dropped the SOBS from their name and on 24 June 2009 became a registered charity SC040605 until 23 March 2023 when we became a Scottish Charity Incorporated Organisation (SCIO)

The Constitution was amended at a Special General Meeting 6 May 2010 to reflect Independent Examination, reviewed and no changes made to Constitution other than to reflect change from Charity to SCIO in 2024.

Appointment of Trustees

The Trustees are appointed annually at the Annual General Meeting. The Trustees are the management committee and meet a minimum of three times per calendar year.

Membership is open to all individuals who themselves are touched by suicide, over 18 who wish to further the objectives of the organisation.

Management

The trustees are responsible for the direction and governance of the organisation. The facilitation of the Support Groups is undertaken by Trustee's with staff delegated responsibility for day to day running of the organisation with the Office Bearers with assistance and support from Partner Organisations and other agencies when required.

Objectives & Activities

Charitable Purpose

The organisation's purposes are: The relief of those in need by reason of age, ill health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage through offering services to anyone who has been "Touched by Suicide". In furtherance of these charitable purposes, we will: provide emotional and practical support is offered in a number of different ways including a confidential telephone helpline, support information, help via e-mail, group and network issues to allow individuals to connect with others experiencing the same feelings and information relating to practical issues and problems provide a safe, confidential environment where bereaved people can share their experiences, express their feelings, giving and gaining support from and too each other. These are carried out meet the needs and help overcome the isolation experienced by people who have been bereaved by suicide. By accessing our services, we want people to know that they are not alone and that there are many places they can go to for support in order to break the stigma and isolation attached to suicide .Provide self-help services, free of charge with our compassionate facilitators whom have all been bereaved by suicide themselves, so individuals are guaranteed the sensitive and understanding support that they require at such a difficult often lonely time.

Activities

Achievements and Performance

We continue to run 10 groups across Scotland, with an additional 99 people receiving 1:1 face to face support to alleviate trauma and over 320 calls from individuals to our telephone support line, with services e.g. Penumbra, Cruise, and Link Workers from GP services across Scotland continue their referral of individuals and families in early stages of their bereavement.

Touched By Suicide Scotland SCIO52378

Our Development Worker continues to manage our volunteer facilitators, telephone line, zoom sessions and 1:1 support.

We continue to employ sessional staff to assist and support Development Worker with increase in 1:1 support as we progress and develop our succession plan

Financial Review

Our main sources of grant funding this year is from The National Lottery Community Fund, The Robertson Trust and ACVS

To all of you who have been out fundraising, donating your time and commitment participating in sponsored kilt walking, our families fundraising in memory of loved ones, the differing events and creative fundraising – Thank you. We especially thank our partners for the support they give over the years without your support we would not be here.

Every year we find ourselves saying that the amount of work undertaken has been tremendous and we still manage with your support to provide support where it is most needed.

A great big thank you to our staff member who has done an excellent job managing the organisation with the support of our volunteers, sessional staff and partner organisation
A thank you to all our funders for their continued support.

Reserves Policy

The unrestricted funds represent donations and fundraising by those touched by suicide and our support group members to assist with the running costs of our charitable activities.

Plans for Future periods

Trustee's finances permitting will continue to hold both virtual and group meetings, existing groups under review as one-to-one meetings on increase. Recruiting of new staff ongoing. We will continue to provide 1 to 1 support and link into existing groups or zoom sessions while we maintain employment of one full time and 2 sessional members of staff, due to demand this will remain our main focus throughout 2025 as we continue to progress the retirement of our Senior Worker and a smooth transfer of support for our volunteers and us the Trustees. We hope we will be able to build a small reserve to meet a maximum of three months running costs over the next three years.

Independent Examiners Report

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Touched by Suicide Scotland

I report on the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2025, which are set out on pages 7 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 ("the 2005 Act") and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) ("the 2006 Regulations"). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the 2006 Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section (44)(1)(c) of the 2005 Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Regulations have not been met, or
2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
