The Church of God in Glasgow Annual Report to 31st March 2026

The Church of God in Glasgow is an interdependent group of Christians, in association with Church and Churches of God worldwide, established in the late 1890's. The Church in Glasgow is comprised of 24 adherents, 18 of whom are in regular attendance. Ages range from 27 – 85 years. Out of the congregation 33% are in regular paid employment.

During the 12-month period, the Church has maintained the meeting place at 137 Allanton Drive, satisfying all responsibilities to the local authorities.

We have continued in our endeavor to provide a free service of public ministry, worship and prayer. It remains one of our aims to communicate with and reach out locally in practical ways. We have a weekly children's club that mainly comprises of primary school children and is well supported by local families. In addition to this we have continued to offer considerable practical and supervisory assistance, together with financial help, to the Youth Camps at Auchenfoyle, Kilmacolm and in other parts of the UK. The subsidy we offer enables local children and teenagers to attend these activities.

Regular financial support is given to various charities such as Prince & Princess of Wales Hospice; MS Revive and Tear Fund.

We maintain continuous financial support to our itinerant Evangelists and their immediate dependents. They are engaged in several countries throughout the world, as well as in the UK.
