Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The main aim of the company is to educate the public in dramatic and operatic arts to further the development of public appreciation and taste in said arts.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

- We performed 'Legally Blonde' at the Church Hill Theatre, Edinburgh.
- We continued to hire out/provide costumes for local companies, including schools. In doing so, we promoted the dramatic and operatic arts to a wider audience than by just performing the annual show.

- The cast included a number of members, returning and new, who rehearsed hard over the summer.
- We kept ticket prices low to encourage wide audiences - gaining sponsorship to help keep cost to public low.
- The show sold well and was well promoted in local press.
- We continued to hire out/provide costumes for local companies, including schools. In doing so, we therefore promoted the dramatic and operatic arts to a wider audience than by just performing our annual show.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
