document(structure of governing document)

Type of governing

Larkhall Congregational Church is a charitable unincorporated association and the purposes and administration arrangements are set out in our Constitution (new copy submitted last year)

Trustee recruitment

The trustees are selected by the Deacons' court and the appointment ratified by the members of the Congregation at the Annual General Meeting each Spring and are accountable to the Managers' and Deacons' Courts which meet 6 times a year and also accountable to the Congregation of the Church.

Only the Minister and organist receive payments on a week-to-week basis
The trustee who is secretary will occasionally be given expenses to cover phone calls and purchases such as ink cartridges. The Treasurer is reimbursed monthly for expenses such as Pulpit supply, the organist and cleaning.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The purpose is to provide for the religious needs of our members and adherents and also, to the local community. To help the needy at home and abroad, to donate to other charities which work with the homeless and hungry, the sick and the poor.

Achievements and performance

As well as provision of religious services, the church offers baptisms, marriages and funerals to anyone in the community on request, whether a member or not. We act as a community Church.
