Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

These funds are held for the purposes of financing the future activities of the Congregation, including the acquisition/improvement of accommodation for the holding of meetings for worship and Bible study. There are no funds, subject to restriction on their use. The affairs of the congregation are managed by the trustees who, as members of the charity, work closely together. Meetings to discuss financial matters are arranged whenever required, being included in the regular religious meetings of the congregation. All major decisions are made by formal resolutions at meetings of congregation members as provided for in the directions from the Society. The Trustees and all other persons engaged in the activities of the Congregation have done so on an entirely voluntary unpaid basis. No expenses or remunerations were paid to Trustees, nor were there any financial transactions between the charity and Trustees, or any person connected to a Trustee.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

All of the Associated Trustees are appointed or re-appointed at our annual general meeting, which is held in May each year.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

Our purpose, as recorded in our constitution, (held on file with the OSCR). Exalt Jehovah God as Sovereign of the universe. And comfort people with the good news of God's kingdom. And to encourage faith in God's now-reigning King, Jesus Christ.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The Declaration restricts the operation of the Congregation to religious purposes and limits the use of its assets to such purposes, these being the practice and advancement of Christianity founded on the Holy Bible. The Congregation is organised on the basis of scriptural precedent and as otherwise recommended by the Society, with which the Congregation is affiliated.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

During the year the Congregation has achieved its objects and continued to pursue its purpose by holding regular twice-weekly meetings for the public worship of God and Bible study. Further, most congregation members have assisted by sharing regularly in preaching the good news of God's Kingdom and teaching principles of Christian living including respect for secular authority, persons and property; the maintenance of personal morality and family values; and other facets of practical Christianity.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity has a consistent income base, through donations from congregation members, some of which is by tax-effective means. Based on this income, we can plan confidently with relatively small reserves. The policy is to ensure that we have free reserves on hand, not designated for specific purposes or otherwise committed equivalent to not less than 3 months working expenditure. At the year-end, the free reserves were roughly equal to 4 months working expenditure.
