BUSBY PARISH CHURCH OF SCOTLAND

Trustees' Annual Report, year ended 31st December 2025

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document:

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Constitution (Unitary Form).

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees:

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the Elders of the Church and a number of non-ordained members of the congregation. In both cases they are chosen from those members of the congregation who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The Minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery.

Organisational Structure:

The Kirk Session which meets nine times a year is responsible for spiritual matters within the church and the financial management of its affairs. Certain responsibilities are delegated to the Finance Committee, Social Committee and the Property Committee as appropriate.

Objectives and Activities:

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish in Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond. Busby Parish Church follows an established pattern of worship and fellowship.

Achievements and Performance:

Throughout 2025 our church has continued to be a significant asset for the Busby village community and our wider Parish bounds, and much consideration has been given to how this can be sustained in the future and in the context of the Glasgow Presbytery Mission Plan. Sunday worship remains at the centre of our activities and the average number of attendees has been sustained at c40-50 adults supplemented by the presence of children and teachers/parents from our Sunday Club who attend part of our service before retiring to the hall. Their presence during worship is particularly encouraging and further benefits from our choir mistress joining them in the hall for a time of teaching through music and singing. After worship fellowship, with teas and coffees served each Sunday following the morning service, continues to be popular and has been embraced warmly by many of those who attended the earlier worship.

Although we lost our well-loved minister, Rev. Jerry Eve, of some 27 years through retirement in September, indications are that there has been no negative impact on the number of worshippers Sunday-by-Sunday, with our services now being led by a mix of ministerial pulpit supply and our own team of accredited worship leaders. As a result we continue to believe that there is potential to increase the number of attendees at Sunday worship and for 2026 have retained an ongoing stretch target of increasing average attendance by 20%, half of whom would be aged under 40.

Hall use continues to be popular with keep-fit, drop-in, Guild, Brownies and Guides all taking place, along with the established lets associated with art classes, quilting and badminton group. The youth activities are particularly popular with Rainbows, Brownies, Guides and Boys Brigade thriving. The East Renfrewshire Foodbank continued to operate a satellite of this initiative throughout the year, providing over 400 food parcels to our 'guests'. All of our leaders and volunteers continue to demonstrate a commendable commitment. All of this is under-pinned by our Church Officer, Mr John Meek, who continues in this role with great dignity and enthusiasm.

A second 'Busby Arts Festival' of events was hosted by the Church over the weekend of September 5-7 with funding provided from retained profits from the 2024 event. This was again a great success demonstrating what can be achieved when partner organisations pull together. We plan to repeat the festival in 2026. In a similar vein, our Drama Group brought to the Community 'Supper and Song' over 3 nights in January 2025, although regrettably this was billed as their last performance before they were to draw their final curtain. As part of our 190th anniversary of the founding of our church an evening Ceilidh event was staged with the young band 'Lussa' who had been a great hit at the Arts Festival concert; although attendance was disappointing the night-time event returned a small financial profit along with a huge feel-good atmosphere. It is hoped that further community events will be possible in 2026 and we continue to investigate the potential for a community café 'hub'.

With regard to the Presbytery Mission Planning agenda, some little headway was made in 2025 in relation to our working with the Greenbank congregation to establish what this means for the future of our ministry and buildings. We believe that the optimum approach to ultimately uniting with Greenbank would be via an initial linkage, however this has not been supported by the latter. An appointed Presbytery facilitator will work with representatives of both congregations during the first quarter of 2026 to see if an arrangement can be settled on that satisfies the aims of both congregations and we will approach these with an open mind informed by the views of our members.

In conclusion, our constitution encourages involvement of the congregation and our friends in the wider community to contribute to the life of the Church and we encourage you to get involved. Ongoing attention to all of this will be essential if we are to be successful in strengthening God's Kingdom in our community through our presence as a welcoming place of Worship and Fellowship.

Financial Review:

Total receipts for 2025 of £94,017 and payments of £98,848 resulted in a disappointing, albeit manageable, deficit for the year of £4,831. It is expected that an estimated £2,350 of the deficit will be recovered in 2026 when the following refunds are received: refund of council tax £1,997 per 6 months vacant property, £180 advertising income, £100 pulpit supply refund and £73 national insurance refund. Whilst receipts fell by 11%, payments also fell by 8%, driven in large part by an extraordinary 38% decrease in heating & lighting costs, primarily as a result of charges in 2024 including a significant carry-over from 2023 due to supplier billing issues in that latter year. These alone at £5,741 accounted for 65% of the overall decrease in payments. Nevertheless the Trustees aim for income in 2025 to exceed expenditure by 10% was again well off target.

It should not be overlooked that the decrease in income of £12,004, whilst benefiting from a legacy of £1,000 from the estate of the late Joyce Laing and the recurring £5,000 from the late Ronal McIntosh estate, could not match one-off donations of £10,000 in 2024. Excluding these the 'Analysis of Donations' at Note 3, shows a decrease, year-on-year, of £8,497, equivalent to 12%. From this it does seem that the ongoing appeal to members to review and increase their offerings has largely gone unheeded.

More positively a £1,967.50 increase in hall-lets, equivalent to 27.5%, was achieved from our renewed approach to these, building on a firm legacy of long-standing user groups, combined with a proactive approach to identifying new opportunities.

Expenditure of £3,871 on fabric was less than had been forecast although we did continue to aim to maintain our buildings in the best possible order affordable. This was particularly challenging as regards the Manse as it is recognised that significant improvements would almost certainly be undertaken by any future new owners. In light of the Presbytery permission, referred to in the earlier report of Achievements, the Manse has been valued well in excess of £300,000 and will be placed on the open market in January 2026. It is planned that the sale proceeds be invested in suitable growth/income funds in the expectation that a new manse may be required in either a future union or a linkage scenario for our church. Until that time interest/dividends earned will be used for fabric maintenance for the church and halls, whilst the capital sum will be protected.

Reserves Policy:

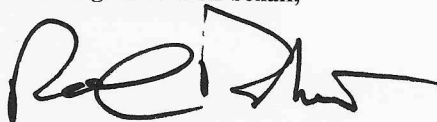

It is the Trustees' policy to maintain reserves at the highest possible level and call on these to meet emergency shortfalls in either Ordinary Funds or the Fabric Fund. Wherever possible reserve funds are replenished by fund raising aimed at specific projects. At the end of the year the Church held £14,794 of unrestricted funds between the General Reserve Fund and the Designated Fabric Fund, of which £3,000 will be budgeted for fabric fund investments in 2026.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities:

The Trustees must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year. The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2016. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and/or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf,

Robin Bulmer

Session Clerk

SC016612

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Busby Parish Church

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025 which are set out on pages 6 to 11

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

An examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

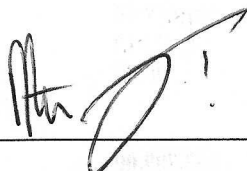

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- (i) to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended), and
- (ii) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended) have not been met, or

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of the Anderson & Mather Trust

I report on the accounts for the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025 which are set out on page 12.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

An examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

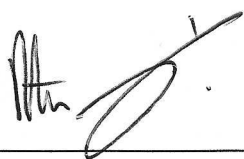

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- (i) to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended), and
- (ii) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended) have not been met, or

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
