Trustees' Annual Report

The Trustees present their annual report along with the financial statements of the Trust for the year ending 31st July 2024. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Trust Deed and the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and the information on the previous pages forms part of this report.

Structure, Governance and Management: Objectives

The Craigleith Trust, a self-funded family run charity, was created as a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) by Deed of Trust in 2023, acknowledged by OSCR by email on 19th July 2023. The purpose of the Trust is to support groups and organisations in Scotland and elsewhere that have charitable purposes and/or individuals who are deemed to be worthy recipients of funding being distributed on a purely charitable basis for one or more of the following charitable causes:-

- (a) the prevention or relief of poverty;
- (b) the advancement of education;
- (c) the advancement of religion;
- (d) the advancement of health;
- (e) the saving of lives;
- (f) the advancement of citizenship or community development;
- (g) the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science;
- (h) the advancement of public participation in sport;
- (i) the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended;
- (j) the advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation;

- (k) the promotion of religious or racial harmony;
- (l) the promotion of equality and diversity;
- (m) the advancement of environmental protection or improvement;
- (n) the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability,
- (o) financial hardship or other disadvantage;
- (p) the advancement of animal welfare;
- (q) any other purpose that may reasonably be regarded as analogous to any of the preceding purposes.

The charity's affairs are managed by the four trustees, all family members, chaired by [REDACTED]

In the year ending 31st July 2024, no funds were allocated to The Craigleith Trust and consequently no financial support was provided by the fund. At this time the SCIO was a legal entity but effectively moribund during this period, thus no accounts have been prepared and available for inspection.

The trustee' report was approved by the Trustees on 14th April 2025 and signed on its behalf by:
