Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention other than that disclosed on the attached page* two (disclosure section, appendix 3). 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Give here brief details of any items that the examiner wishes to disclose

The charity's Trustee's Accounts Report and Financial Information documents for CTE-Scotland are accurate to the best of my knowledge. I have checked the charity's bank statement of account from Virgin Money and the receipts for various services purchased by the charity, CTE-Scotland. I noticed that there is a surplus of ~£27 on the bank statement of account, a sum which was due to personal deposit by the Trustee Chair and a cash-back from the Virgin Money bank credited to the charity's account. The Trustees agreed that this sum and the statement balance shall be carried forward to the following financial year for the charity.
