Objectives & Activities

Objectives

To educate the public on the flora, fauna, geology and ecology of Kinnoull Woodland Park by means of leaflets, information boards, public meetings or educational walks.

To represent the interests of the public users of Kinnoull Woodland Park with Perth & Kinross Council and Forest and Land Scotland concerning the maintenance and improvement of the woodland park.

To encourage greater public use of Kinnoull Woodland Park by promoting opportunities for health improvement and recreation.

Summary of the main activities during the year

Members of the committee represented the user base at various meetings held with the parks managers.

Individual members continued to assist with routine maintenance in the woodland park, with litter picking & path maintenance work being undertaken. This included some work done maintaining the chainsaw carvings in the park.

The group has arranged with Perth and Kinross Council to fund improvements to the environment around the Kinnoull tower with a few to making this a better visitor experience. This work was completed in December 2025 and the costs of c.£16,255 will appear in the 2026 accounts.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]
