DIRECTORS' REPORT

The Directors are pleased to present their annual directors' report together with the financial statements of the company for the year ending 31 March 2026 which are also prepared to meet the requirements for a Trustees' report and accounts for Charity Law purposes.

The financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), the Companies Act 2006, the Memorandum and Articles of Association, and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

CHAIRS REPORT:

It is with great pride that we share that we have worked with 793 survivors of sexual violence, providing them with 7,791 hours of critically needed support. It is with great sorrow that we report this is still needed, and the need for our services is only increasing.

We continue to strive for excellence in all that we do. Our counsellors are committed, skilled and passionate; and our standards are high in all that we do.

Over the course of financial year 25-26 we continued the remedial action required from the RCS review and the Ling report. We completed all the remedial actions; we remain only to review our strategy, for which we decided to wait for the appointment of a new Executive Team. In FY 25/26 we appointed a new Deputy CEO, who has provided exceptional leadership and streamlined the service since joining us in January 2026. The addition of a Survivor Experience Officer has also begun to have an impact, ensuring survivors are at the heart of our approach, and that their voices are heard in our decision making.

The Board has expanded to four members, who are committed, experienced and bring needed skills to the table. We will continue to seek Board members based on our current skills assessment to ensure we have the breadth and depth of experience required to ensure best practice governance as we go forward.

The recent increase in the rate of sexual violence demonstrates that we cannot become complacent in our efforts to tackle it. We continue to work as a committed partner in Delivering Equally Safe, a collaborative effort of Edinburgh-based organisations providing support and services to survivors of sexual violence. We will continue to strive to create a world where sexual violence is a thing of the past.

DIRECTORS' REPORT

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Vision

'Until we have a world free of sexual violence, we act in solidarity with survivors'.

Purpose

Originally established in 1978, ERCC's charitable objectives are:

- To relieve the distress of women, men, boys, girls and non-binary people aged over 12 years who have been raped or who have experienced sexual violence and of their partners, friends and families through the provision of emotional and practical support, information, advice and advocacy; and,
- To advance education, through the provision of information, advice and advocacy, among professional bodies and the general public about the causes, nature, extent and effects of rape and sexual violence against women, men, boys and girls aged over 12 years, and ways of preventing or relieving the suffering it causes.

Service Outcomes and aims

1. Survivors develop positive strategies for coping, which better enable them to:
    a. maintain and improve relationships
    b. remain in employment or seek employment/training/volunteering opportunities
    c. overcome isolation
    d. reduce self-harming practices

2. Survivors are empowered and supported to engage with the criminal justice system; when they elect to do so.

3. Survivors are more informed about the potential ongoing impact of rape and sexual abuse and are therefore better able to understand and self-manage the effects of sexual violence.

Our service outcomes contribute significantly to local outcome improvement plans for City of Edinburgh, Mid and East Lothian Councils, and nationally to the following National Outcomes[1]

- We live in communities that are inclusive, empowered, resilient and safe;
- We respect, protect and fulfil human rights and live free from discrimination;
- We are healthy and active;
- We grow up loved, safe and respected so that we realise our full potential;
- We tackle poverty by sharing opportunities, wealth and power more equally.

Our Services

Our services are normally open to people of all genders unless explicitly mentioned. The types of support provided by ERCC include:

· Short and longer-term therapeutic support for survivors - to provide a safe space for survivors to build healthy coping, well-being, and resilience.

· Group support - to help reduce experience of isolation, stigma, and shame, and build resilience through positive and sustaining networks of support.

· Advocacy support - to support survivors who are considering or have already reported to the police and are engaged in the justice process.

Edinburgh Adult Service: offers support and information for those affected by sexual violence in Edinburgh.

East Lothian Sexual Abuse Service (ELSAS): outreach service offering support and information for those affected by sexual violence in East Lothian.

Midlothian Sexual Abuse Service (MSAS): outreach service offering support for those affected by sexual violence in Midlothian.

Young People and Students service (STAR - Surviving Trauma, Abuse and Rape): specialist support and counselling, creative therapies, information, and advocacy for young people aged 12-18 who are affected by sexual violence.

Learning Disability and Learning Needs service: Specialist neurodiverse service which supports survivors who have a learning disability, needs and/or autism.

National Prevention Project: Delivers the national prevention curriculum in schools in East Lothian, Edinburgh, Midlothian and West Lothian. Supports the delivery of the equally safe at school program as well as Equally Safe at University and College.

Information: ERCC has a number or resources available for survivors that are available to download from our website www.ercc.scot or can be posted out on request.

Volunteers

ERCC relies on the enthusiasm and energy of our volunteers to develop and deliver our services to survivors of sexual violence. We are very grateful to these volunteers for their commitment and support. We continually strive to make volunteering a positive experience at Edinburgh Rape Crisis Centre. All ERCC volunteers undergo our bespoke training and are involved in the delivery of our therapeutic support services.

Volunteers (cont.)

The board of directors would also like to take this opportunity to thank all our staff for their hard work and commitment to survivors and the work of the centre.

We would also like to warmly acknowledge the contributions of staff, volunteers and board members who have moved on to pastures new.

RELATED PARTIES

In 2025-26, ERCC has continued to work in partnership with a range of stakeholders to improve services for survivors of sexual violence, including:

- Equally Safe: Edinburgh's Violence against women partnership;
- East and Midlothian Violence Against Women Partnership;
- Police Scotland;
- NHS Lothian;
- Rape Crisis Scotland;
- Midlothian and East Lothian Drug and Alcohol Partnership
- Edinburgh Women's Aid, Shakti Women's Aid and Women's Aid East and Midlothian;
- Edinburgh's universities and Edinburgh College;
- Sycamore Centre

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

In 2025-26, ERCC delivered specialist high quality support, counselling, advocacy and information to 793 survivors of sexual violence across all our services. We provided approximately 7791 hours of support and contact to survivors across our support services. We received a total of 685 new referrals across our services, 472 were external and 213 internal.

Support was delivered at our Edinburgh Centre and at eight outreach locations in Edinburgh, East Lothian and Midlothian. We have access funds to cover travel and interpretation services to ensure that, wherever possible, there are no barriers to using ERCC's services. We also offer on-line support.

Our Adult Services cover Edinburgh, East Lothian and Midlothian and include a specialist service for people with additional support needs including survivors with a learning disability, learning need and/or autism. Over the year, the Learning Needs specialist provided support to 9 survivors.

During the year, we offered group work with trauma informed yoga, art therapy, and survivors accessing support through our Midlothian outreach service could participate in an on-line psychodynamic group. A total of 85 survivors engaged in our group work over the year.

Our Adult services across Edinburgh, East Lothian and Midlothian provided support to 345 survivors. This included support within our centre in Edinburgh, and various outreach venues across Edinburgh and East/Mid Lothian.

Our student and Young People Survivors services, offer trauma informed support, therapeutic support and information to young people, aged 12 to 21, across Edinburgh, East Lothian and Midlothian. During the year, we provided support sessions to 94 young people.

Our dedicated Advocacy service offers support to survivors who have decided to, or have already reported to, the police following an experience of sexual violence that has happened at any time in their lives. Our Advocacy team consistently receives outstanding feedback in national evaluations, affirming how invaluable advocacy support is to the survivors we work with. During the year we provided advocacy support to 213 survivors.

Our work within the Sycamore Centre continued in the year. Sycamore provides healthcare and support for adult survivors of sexual assault or rape, and a pioneering service for children and young people who have experienced harm and abuse. In November 2024, our STAR team established an outreach base at the multi-agency partnership Bairns' Hoose at Sycamore in Edinburgh, providing therapeutic support for young people, aged 12-18, and for their families. Our Advocacy team continues its outreach work at Sycamore, alongside the specialist NHS and Social Work practitioners. During the period 2025-2026 we provided support to 37 survivors.

2025-2026 saw the introduction of the Survivor Engagement Project. The Survivor Engagement Project is new to ERCC and aims to develop peer support spaces alongside Survivors in a trauma sensitive way. It's about strengthening support networks, improving wellbeing and getting survivors voice heard in a way that suits them. This project helps survivors share their experience to improve ERCC services and offers optional ways to connect with others with lived experience. During 25-26, 9 survivors commenced engagement with the new project, and it continues to develop.

Here are some examples of what survivors have said about support from ERCC in their feedback:

"My counsellor was so skilled. I felt so safe, so unjudged. Tears are close as I think about it now. I was so lucky and grateful. When I track my journey it is hard for me to be comfortable as I remember how 'little' I felt when I started – how can I express sufficient gratitude for that kind of work? I still am in awe and still feel somehow unworthy."

"Since starting the sessions with my worker I have been able to build more confidence back up, stop second guessing myself so much and trust my instincts a bit more again. I am eating better and sleeping better. I can't stress how much these sessions with my worker have helped me. Just having someone really listen to what you say and not dismiss it is really important and that's what I felt was lacking when trying to talk to others about needing help or how much I was struggling. I tried so much to do things to help myself like mediation, yoga, regular visits to doctor etc but nothing seemed to help improve my sleeping or eating problems and I had given up on them for a while. I am now back at mediation and yoga which I do feel helps, I just needed the sessions too as it wasn't enough on its own, doing these things. You can't under estimate the help someone can give, just talking with you."

"I liked that my worker came to my town and that it was weekly. It was super supportive that she messaged me the night before."

"Just having someone to talk to really helped with an unbiased point of view. No one listened at work or helped with the bullying (male boss who abused his position) I was experiencing at work prior to the attack, sick lines ignored for flexible working, policies not followed, my family don't constantly want to hear me complain about my work, so I found I no longer wanted to mention it and was holding it in most of the time. I found talking with my sister whom I usually talked with difficult as she was always questioning and arguing with me over what I said I felt, thinking she knew how to solve my problems when she was just causing more stress. Partly because this didn't fit in with her needs and I was no longer able to do as much for her as I use to. Then the attack happened with my ex, I pretty much stopped functioning properly, my day to day functioning was already in a bad state and once this happened I could no longer sleep at night, never being able to sleep before 6am, my eating habits were terrible. I was really struggling every day with basic functions and suffering from a list of symptoms, constantly questioning myself and lacking confidence."

Our Prevention workers, who are part of the RCS (Rape Crisis Scotland) National Prevention Project, delivered in-person workshops in schools across Edinburgh, East Lothian and Midlothian. We delivered workshops as follows:

Areas	No of Schools	No of Pupils
Edinburgh	13	1535
East & Midlothian	8	1488
West Lothian	8	1111

Feedback from Prevention Programme attendees:

"The sessions are always delivered to the highest standard and professionalism"

"Again, excellent. Well planned, well resourced, engaging lessons that were pitched perfectly to the age and stage of the pupils. Thank you so much for the important work you do."

"The prevention workers are excellent. They build instant relationships with the pupils by being open and welcoming. They encourage engagement and are clear in what the aims of the lessons are and what supports are available."

"I found this a very interesting but well knowing topic, as its good to know more about things that may happen in future but also being able to know where to get help."

The Volunteering Programme is currently funded by the UKSP Fund. Our volunteers provide crucial support and resource to ERCC. Volunteer support workers commit to seeing three service users per week. The volunteer service continues to attract and retain a diverse team, including six trainee or recently qualified counsellors and an advocacy volunteer.

Feedback from the Volunteers includes:

"I appreciate your support and patience every week, and for your thoughtfulness and sharing of knowledge."

"Thank you for the support, and for meeting my needs as a volunteer counsellor in ERCC. I appreciate that you encouraged my voice."
"I genuinely appreciate how supportive and safe it feels to be in on a Wednesday when N is there and to have weekly contact time. I feel able to bring things openly and ask for support and am really enjoying getting to know each other better, both personally and professionally."

"It is lovely to be working in such a warm environment. I really appreciate the support received from N and from the other members of staff."

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The charity generated a surplus in the year of £38,620 (2025: deficit of £75,730), including some advance funding planned to be spent in the year to 31 March 2027. Total income amounted to £1,288,043 (2025: £1,563,651), of which £1,261,962 (2025: £1,492,360) was related to restricted projects and £26,081 (2025: £71,291) to unrestricted funds. At the balance sheet date the unrestricted reserves were £344,236 (2025: £340,748), with £457,501 (2025: £422,369) in restricted funds giving total funds of £801,737 (2025: £763,117).

Investment policy
Under the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the charity has the power to invest any money that the company does not immediately require, in any investments, securities or properties. As there are few funds for long-term investment the Directors, having regard to the liquidity requirements of operating the charity and to the reserves policy, have operated a policy of keeping available funds in current accounts.

Reserves policy
Total unrestricted reserves, including any designated reserves, held at 31st March 2026 amount to £344,236 (2025: £340,748). The designated pension reserve is £54,755 (2025: £60,245) in deficit leaving £398,991 (2025: £400,993) in the general fund as a free reserve.

In line with best practice, ERCC has a set target level of free unrestricted reserves equivalent to three months' core running costs for the organisation, which equates to £312,356 (2025: £409,845).

At the year end this target was met the free reserves were £398,991. The board remains committed to maintaining the level of unrestricted funds held by ERCC and we are considering how best to sustain our unrestricted income in the face of sector wide challenges.

Risk management
Risks are detailed in the Risk Register for the organisation, which also sets out the plan for risk minimisation. Internal risks are minimised by development and implementation of procedures related to those risks.

Key external risks relate to the:

a) Lack of Long Term funding
b) Demand on our Services
c) The cessation liability associated with Lothian Pension Fund.

a) Long Term Funding

ERCC continues to face risks to the continued delivery of services due to the end of short-term funding streams. A significant sum of our large grants come to an end in March 2027; but we have a plan to secure replacement/continuation funding for these. However, ERCC remains at risk to the challenges posed by short term grant funding.

The risks to ERCC of loss of funding include:

- Impact on operational activities
- Inability to meet service delivery commitments
- Cash flow difficulties arising from lack of liquidity
- Loss of staff expertise
- Impact on ERCC reserves

ERCC has a fundraising strategy in place which aims to mitigate these risks through a diverse range of income-generation activities, including:

- Applications to grant funders
- Community-based fundraising
- 'Become A Friend' regular- giving scheme
- Applications to trusts for unrestricted/core funding.

b) Demand on our Services

Demand for our services is increasing at an unprecedented level across all of ERCC's services and particularly in longer term support and advocacy. Demand that far exceeds our capacity has been a long-standing challenge for ERCC. Changes to government funding for 2025-26 resulted in the loss of eight members of staff. We are committed to managing waiting lists effectively as well as identifying additional resources to ensure the sustainability of our work.

c) Risk management plan regarding Lothian Pension Fund (LPF) liability

ERCC is a community admission body to the Local Government Pension Scheme administered by Lothian Pension Fund (LPF). In August 2016, ERCC's final active member of the scheme retired from the Scheme and ceased to make contributions, triggering cessation. The Exit Liability is £171,000 per the Actuarial Valuation, 15 November 2016.

ERCC's Directors consulted specialist pensions and legal advisors and worked closely with Lothian Pension Fund to develop a realistic and affordable multi-year repayment plan, agreed on by both parties in October 2017. Details of this repayment plan are outlined in Notes 17 and 18. ERCC is confident the organisation will meet all annual payment requirements as set out in the repayment plan

PLANS FOR FUTURE PERIOD

ERCC's Board and senior staff have endorsed the following activities for the next 3 years:

- Continue to meet and exceed all requirements of the National Service Standards for Rape Crisis Centres as developed by Rape Crisis Scotland.
- Recruit 3 more Board members to strengthen our governance.
- Review our Mission, Vision and Values and develop a new strategy and business plan for 2026-30
- Run all aspects of ERCC's services (support, prevention, information and training) services efficiently and effectively, in adherence with the National Rape Crisis Service Standards, and maintain ERCC's reputation as a provider of specialist, high quality trauma-informed support, prevention work, information and training, and project development;
- Delivering on specific outcome and output requirements as set out in individual agreements with funders;
- Continuing to develop and implement a funding and fundraising strategy focused on sustainability;
- Maintain good practice in outcome and output monitoring and the collection of quality data from service users.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Constitution

Edinburgh Rape Crisis Centre (ERCC) is a company limited by guarantee governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association dated 14 October 2005, and last updated 3 August 2022, and is registered as a charity with HM Revenue & Customs and the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator.

Membership

ERCC approved a new simplified membership structure for the board and amended its articles of association accordingly. According to the new articles of association adopted through a vote of members at an Extraordinary general meeting on 3rd August 22. As per the new articles of association the directors shall be the only members of Edinburgh Rape Crisis Centre. A director shall become a member on becoming a director. Membership is not transferable. A member shall cease to be a member if they cease to be a director or die.

EDINBURGH RAPE CRISIS CENTRE
(A Company Limited by Guarantee)

Directors and Organisational Structure

The business of ERCC shall be managed and administered by a Board of Directors whose members shall be regarded as the directors of ERCC for the purposes of the Act and who shall be registered as directors with the Registrar of Companies. There shall be a maximum of 12 (twelve) and a minimum of 3 (three) Directors. Any individual woman aged 16 (sixteen) years or over who supports the Objects of ERCC, and who is permitted by law to do so (and who is not disqualified from serving as a Director under Article 25.1) may be appointed to be a Director by resolution of the Directors.

The Directors meet regularly to oversee the operation of the company and determine its strategic direction and policies. They have reviewed the operation of the Board and have set up the following sub-committees: People, and HR, Finance and Governance. Each sub-committee comprises a minimum of one Director and a senior management representative. The day-to-day management is the responsibility of the Senior Management Team. Non-management staff members are also members of the sub committees and are involved in most business of the sub-committee.

Induction and Training of New Directors

After election an induction programme and information pack is offered to all new directors.

Remuneration Policy & Payments to Senior Management

The Directors consider the Senior Management Team to be the key management personnel of the charity. The pay of the senior staff is reviewed annually and normally increased in accordance with average earnings.

STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The Directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with the applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the charitable company as at the balance sheet date and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year. In preparing those financial statements, the Directors are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles of the Charities SORP;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed; subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the charitable company will continue on that basis.

The Directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006, the Charities & Trustees Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The Directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The directors are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charitable company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Statement as to disclosure of information to auditors

So far as the Trustees are aware, there is no relevant audit information (as defined by Section 418 of the Companies Act 2006) of which the charitable company's auditors are unaware, and each Trustee has taken all the steps she ought to have taken as a Trustee in order to make herself aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the charitable company's auditors are aware of that information.

This report has been prepared in accordance with SORP and in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 applicable to small companies. Approved by and authorised for issue by the board of directors on 21 September 2026 and signed on their behalf by:-

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS AND DIRECTORS

We have audited the financial statements of Edinburgh Rape Crisis Centre (the 'charitable company') for the year ended 31 March 2026, which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities (incorporating the Income and Expenditure Account), the Balance Sheet, the Statement of Cash Flows and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including FRS102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' (United Kingdom Accounting Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 March 2026 and of its income and expenditure for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and regulation 8 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs UK) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the trustees' (who are also the directors of the company for company law purposes) use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The other information comprises the information in the annual report, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The trustees are responsible for the other information contained within the annual report. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. Our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the directors' report, prepared for the purposes of company law and included in the report of the trustees, for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the directors' report, included with the report of the trustees, has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In light of the knowledge and understanding of the charitable company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not idented material misstatements in the directors' report, included in the report of the trustees.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006, Charities and Trustees Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate and proper accounting records have not been kept; or
- The financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records; or
- Certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit; or
- the trustees were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies regime and take advantage of the small companies' exemptions in preparing the directors' report, included within report of the trustees, and from the requirement to prepare a strategic report.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the trustees' responsibilities statement set out on page 12, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charity or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

We have been appointed as auditor under section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and under the Companies Act 2006 and report in accordance with the Acts and relevant regulations made or having effect thereunder.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below:

Irregularities that result from fraud are inherently more difficult to detect than irregularities that result from error.

From enquiries of those charged with governance, it was determined that the risk of material misstatement from fraud was low with little scope for fraud to occur. Our audit testing is designed to detect material misstatements from fraud where there is not high level collusion.

Our audit testing was designed to detect material misstatements from other irregularities that result from error where there is not high level concealment of the error. In this regard the following audit work was undertaken: applicable laws and regulations were considered, reviewed and discussed with management; senior management meeting minutes were reviewed; internal controls were reviewed; and journals were reviewed. From this audit testing it was determined that the risk of material misstatement in this regard was low.

We carried out income and expenditure testing which was designed to identify any irregularities as a result of simple mistakes or human error. From this audit testing it was determined that the risk of material misstatement in this regard was low.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at: www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities.

This description forms part of our auditor's report.

1. Accounting Policies

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are set out below:-

a. Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) (effective 1 January 2019) – Charities SORP (FRS 102), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Companies Act 2006.

Edinburgh Rape Crisis Centre meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS102. Assets and liabilities are initially recorded at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy note(s).

b. Going Concern

At the year end the charity had unrestricted reserves of £398,991 excluding designated funds. A multi-year payment plan has been agreed in relation to the pension crystallisation debt which at present value amounts to £54,755.

The charity has £1,340,884 approved funding for the year ended 31 March 2027, with the following funding confirmed to 2026-27:-

- Rape Crisis Scotland £291,148
- Scottish Government Delivering Equally Safe £960,610 multi-year grant (2 years).
- EVOC £19,986
- Midlothian Council £23,450
- East Lothian Council £16,000
- City of Edinburgh Council £29,690

The directors are also anticipating that the following annual grants will be renewed at the same level as previously.

- East Lothian MENDAP £15,000
- City of Edinburgh Council STAR £97,500
- City of Edinburgh Council TSRF £70,528
- NHS Lothian £21,600

The above, combined with funds brought forward from 2026, gives the charity around £1.5M. The Board are currently in the process of a continuing organisational review to ensure a sustainable fit with this budget.

Having prepared forecasts and considering funder discussions, the directors have a reasonable expectation that liabilities can be met as they fall due in future, and a period of at least 12 months from the date of approval of these accounts. The charity therefore continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing its financial statements.

1. Accounting Policies (cont)

c. Fund accounting

- Unrestricted funds are funds that can be used in accordance with the objectives of the charity at the discretion of the Directors.
- Designated funds are unrestricted funds set aside by the Directors for specific future purposes or projects.
- Restricted funds are funds that can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objectives of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

d. Income

All income is included in the statement of financial activities when the charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

- income is received by way of grants, donations and gifts and is included in full in the Statement of Financial Activities when receivable. Grants where the entitlement is not conditional on the delivery of a specific performance by the charity are recognised when the charity becomes unconditionally entitled to the grant.
- Donations and legacies are included in full when receivable. The value of services provided by volunteers has not been included.
- Investment income is included when receivable.
- Income from grants related to performance and specific deliverables, are accounted for as the charity earns the right to consideration by its performance.
- Deferred income represents amounts received in the current financial year where the funder specifies that it is for a future period, where entitlement conditions have not been met as at the year-end, or where related performance and specific deliverables have not yet been provided. This is then released to income in the period for which it has been received.

e. Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to the expenditure. All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category. The charity is not registered for VAT and, accordingly, expenditure is shown gross of irrecoverable VAT.

- Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services to its beneficiaries. It includes both the direct costs and indirect costs necessary to support these activities.
- Support costs are those functions that assist the work of the charity but do not directly undertake charitable activities. Support costs include governance costs which support the charity's programmes and activities. These costs include the expenses of the statutory audit. These costs have been allocated between the cost of raising funds and expenditure on charitable activities. The bases on which support costs have been allocated are set out in note 5.

f. Tangible fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The cost of minor additions or those costing below £1,000 are not capitalised. Depreciation is provided at annual rates calculated to write off the cost of each asset over its expected useful life:-

Computer equipment	33.3%	straight line
Other equipment	25%	straight line

g. Financial Instruments

Financial instruments comprise financial assets and financial liabilities which are recognised when the company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial instruments are classified as "basic" in accordance with FRS102 and are accounted for at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash flows over the life of the financial assets or liability to the net carrying amount on initial recognition. Discounting is not applied to short-term receivables and payables, where the effect is immaterial. Financial assets comprise cash, grants receivable and other debtors. Financial liabilities comprise other creditors and accruals.

h. Pensions

The charity operates a Defined Contributions Pension Scheme. Contributions are charged in the accounts as they become payable in accordance with the rules of the Scheme.

i. Operating lease

Rentals applicable to operating leases, where substantially all of the benefits and risk of ownership remain with the lessor, are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities on a straight line basis over the life of the lease.

j. Judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

In the application of the charity's accounting policies, the trustees are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised where the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods where the revision affects both current and future periods.

k. Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the charity has a present obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefit will be required to settle the obligations and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation

2. Income from Donations

16. Pension and Other Post-Retirement Benefit Commitments

Defined contribution pension scheme

Edinburgh Rape Crisis Centre operates a group personal pension scheme with the Pension Trust on a defined contribution basis. The contribution rate depends on the employment date. For employees who started before the 1 January 2017 the Employer contributions are paid at a rate of 10% of pensionable salaries while employee contributions are paid at a rate of 6% of pensionable salaries. Where employment started after the 1 January 2017 the Employer contributions are paid at a rate of 8% of pensionable salaries while employee contributions are paid at a rate of Nil% of pensionable salaries. Employer pension contributions in the year were £62,607 (2025: £82,675).

16. Pension and Other Post-Retirement Benefit Commitments (cont)

Final Salary Pension Scheme

Until November 2016 the company participated in the Lothian Pension Fund ("The Scheme") that provides benefits based on final pensionable pay (i.e. defined benefit scheme). As disclosed in note 18 the company has crystallised the pension liability after the final staff member in the scheme left employment therefore the resulting creditor recognised in these accounts is the net present value of the deficit reduction contributions payable under the agreement that relates to the deficit. The present value is calculated using the discount rate detailed in these disclosures. The unwinding of the discount rate is recognised as a finance cost.

17. Contingent liability

Final Salary Pension Scheme

Under the terms of the multi-year repayment plan that has been agree with Lothian Pension Fund the full liability on crystallisation will not necessarily be repaid in full. A total of £21,300 will only be due if the charity has a significant improvement in its financial position. No adjustment for this potential liability has been included in these accounts. The Lothian Pension Fund retains the right to alter the repayment plan agreement should the financial position of the charity materially improve.
