Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The purpose of the Trust are for the benefit of the public to aid either in money (by award in monetary grants or otherwise) or in kind, such organisations or individuals concerned with the promotion of sports for people with a disability as the Trustees in their sole discretion consider to qualify for and require such aid. In particular, to aid Disability Sport Fife in carrying out its aims, and such other bodies or persons concerned with the charitable purposes which are similar of the Trust.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The Trust has provided financial support to assist individuals for the costs of equipment, support, training and participation in sporting events.

Previous donations have come from many sources and on occasions funds have been assigned to a particular area or individual and are therefore retained in named Funds. The net investment income of the Trust is allocated fairly between and added to the named Funds.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The Trust continues to support individual athletes through its Bursary Funds and funds held on behalf of individual athletes.

The Bill & Margaret Pullar Fund was active in the year supporting athletes Michael Drever, Aaron Crowley, Katie Pake and Niamh Currie awarding grants of £250 to each of the athletes to assist with their training and competition costs.

The Bill & Margaret Pullar Fund made a major contribution of £5,000 to Disability Sporty Fife's coach led sessions which are provided throughout the year across Fife and in addition, made a contribution of £250 to support the participation of Skye Davidson in the Riding for the Disabled National championships.

At the end of the financial year the trust held balances, of varying amounts, for 2 Bursary funds and 4 individual athletes.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Certain funds have been assigned to particular individuals and are used for training and competition costs of that individual until the funds are exhausted.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]
	1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
	2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
