Structure, Governance and Management

Friends of Parkhill is a Scottish charity governed by its constitution and managed by a board of trustees who are responsible for the strategic direction and governance of the charity.

The trustees meet as required to oversee the charity's activities and ensure compliance with its charitable purposes and regulatory obligations.

Charitable Purposes

The charity was established to support and promote the improvement, maintenance and enjoyment of Parkhill Secondary School. This includes encouraging community involvement, supporting environmental enhancement, and promoting activities that contribute to the wellbeing of pupils.

Activities and Achievements

During the reporting period, the charity remained in its establishment phase.

The trustees focused on organisational development and planning for future activities. As the charity had not yet established a bank account, no funding applications were submitted and no grant funding, donations, or other income were received.

No expenditure was incurred during the reporting period.

The trustees continued to explore opportunities to support the charity's objectives and develop plans for future community engagement and improvement projects.

Financial Review

The charity did not receive any income and did not incur any expenditure during the reporting period.

No bank account was in operation during the year and the charity held no assets or liabilities at the year end.

The trustees intend to establish appropriate banking arrangements to support future fundraising and project activities.

Reserves Policy

As the charity held no funds during the reporting period, no reserves were maintained.

Plans for Future Periods

The trustees intend to:

- Establish a charity bank account.
- Apply for appropriate funding opportunities.
- Develop School engagement activities.
- Progress projects that support the improvement and enjoyment of Parkhill Secondary School.
- Strengthen partnerships with residents, community organisations and stakeholders.

Trustee Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved this report and have authorised it to be signed on their behalf.
