APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We are very pleased to have had lots of work done on the Park this year in association with green space. The play area has been completely renovated, more picnic benching has been installed and a shelter for the community. We secured £80,000 of funding from SSE which will be used to further renovate the park in 2027.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We hold a maintenance fund of around £16,000 and £80,000 earmarked for "phase 2" of the renovation which is slated for 2027.
