TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2025

Review of Activities and Achievements

Haydays is a St Andrews-based community organisation for the arts, education and leisure for the over 50s.

It was established in 2001 and became a charity on 10th October 2014. Activities usually take place on Tuesdays during Fife school term-time between 9.30 am and 4.30 pm.

Membership of Haydays runs from August to August. The annual membership fee of £20 remained unchanged for 2024/2025. Free membership continues to be offered to those 75 and over.

Members are asked to sign a gift-aid form if eligible, and members over 75 are asked if they would like to make a donation.

The cost of membership has remained the same since 2014.

At the year-end 2025, there were

HAYDAYS MEMBERSHIP. MEMBERS AND THOSE AT 75 OR OLDER.

2021	185	55 (30%)
2020	182	54 (29%)
2019	180	56 (31%)

Haydays does not own any property but rents premises and employs professional tutors for running classes.

Tutors are all self-employed professionals paid by the class for their Haydays work.

Haydays also covers all expenses for each class.i.e. materials, travel, parking and any other cost incurred by the tutors.

Cost for each class remains at 2014 prices.

Haydays aims to provide a wide variety of classes: educational, creative and physical together with an overriding objective of building connectedness, community, social opportunities and happiness.

Haydays aims to provide a wide variety of classes: educational, creative and physical together with an overriding objective of building connectedness, community, social opportunities and happiness.

2025 was an outstanding success for Haydays. It was a year of expansion, innovation ,investment and ambition

A wide variety of courses - some 17 classes in total- have taken place over a period of 30 weeks in blocks of time which approximate to school terms . These courses have included arts and craft, stained glass, singing for fun, ukulele, Tai chi, salsa dancing , poetry and literature group and a variety of leisure games including curling, bowling, canasta and mahjong.

The ukulele group has expanded from its tuition and learning side into, additionally, an outreach programme called HUGS [Haydays Ukulele Group Saint Andrews] taking its music to hospices, hospitals and community organisations

A completely new website was professionally created in 2025 to publicise and popularise Haydays activities – the new website is a very attractive new design, easily negotiated and easier for updating

The procedures for existing and new members to sign on for courses has been redesigned in 2025 : before the beginning of each block of courses members are now able to take advantage of sign on days so they can secure their course immediately . Haydays now has its own electronic card machine for payments to make it easier for members to pay and for records to be kept , this streamlining of procedures has proved very beneficial in terms of administration and expenditure on postage

Another innovation in 2025 was to pilot a 6 week school holiday workshop programme partly to introduce Haydays in “ bite- size form ” to the wider community including tourists, partly to attract prospective new members but perhaps mainly to help fill that gap of potential loneliness and isolation during summer holiday gap for some members. The scheme was generally well supported and successful
It's something that Haydays will seek to build on in the future.

A Haydays Café has run from 9.30 till 1 pm. In the morning there is a wide range of drinks , biscuits and cakes available and at lunchtime members can enjoy soup and bread. The soup is purchased from Fife Creamery.

There is a tradition of members also contributing home baking, volunteering with preparation and setting out clearing up and washing up. We have managed to keep costs low to allow all to participate eg morning coffee and a cake is a bargain at £1 ; lunchtime soup and bread again only £1.

Equally important is the social side of the café, a place where members can socialise come out make friends and enjoy a sense of belonging . occupying a large space in Saint Andrews town hall, the café has invariably been very busy every Tuesday .

Members are also invited to the Haydays Christmas party in December, and in June there is a summer party the first part of which also dovetails as the AGM [hence ensuring the latter is very well attended!]

Excursions to the theatre and other activities have been organised successfully for members.

Haydays has continued and expanded its connections with the local and national community

It is in regular communication with Age Scotland (awarded Member Group of the Year in 2023)

Alzheimer Scotland and Dementia Scotland; locally we liaise and build bridges with St Andrews Men's Shed and the Friends of Craigtoun

Haydays has continued to support charities this year including donating over 400 wrapped gifts at Christmas to Rachel House Hospice in Kinross and to the Women's Aid secure houses across the country

Financial overview

Statement of trustees responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom generally accepted accounting practise (United Kingdom standards)

The law applicable to charities in Scotland requires the trustees to prepare financial statements which give an accurate view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the receipts and payments of the charity for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- 1) Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- 2) Observe the methods and principles of the charities SORP
- 3) Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- 4) State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements and

- 5) Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume the charity will continue in operation

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Account Scotland Regulations 2006 (as amended). Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed on the attached page*) - which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or - to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
