Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Charity is administered with the terms set out in the Constitution of Healing Hearts Global SCIO.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

The trustees were appointed as they have an understanding of how the founder works towards advancing the gospel of Jesus Christ and preparing the people of God for their destinies. They have all experienced first-hand the benefit of being disciplined in their Christian faith and the advantage of attending a residential Discipleship of Alignment. They provide accountability and prayerful advice and encouragement and help in navigating the administrative side of the charity.

Organisation Structure

Jackie Thompson is the main leader and works alone by the Spirit of God with individuals on a one to one basis giving biblical life coaching. On other occasions, she works with teams who join her and travel with her nationally and internationally for the specific purpose of advancing the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

Objectives & Activities

HHG is trinitarian in its beliefs and it exists to prepare the body of Christ for the work God always intended her to carry out. In everything it does, its goal is to glorify God and advance his kingdom on the earth. It is to have his people's hearts aligned to his truth to the point that he is their life lived not just their words spoken.

Healing Hearts Global Annual Report 2025

January

I stated at the end of last year's annual report that God was speaking to me from the same scripture as this year, which is Hosea 10:12; sow righteousness for yourselves, reap the fruit of unfailing love, and break up your unplowed ground: for it is time to seek the lord until he comes and showers his righteousness on you.

Every time I would meditate on this word, I see myself on a path, the path was winding and bending, it was up and down and I could only see a little in front. I came to realize that I was hidden in Christ, and that on this path I was looking through his eyes, it was him who was walking the path. The best way to describe it was as if I was in a military tank looking out through his eyes.

I could see in the distance I had been on another path and it was the one I had been on for 20 years. It was disappearing and I was so confident and full of faith now I had reached the end of me and had become hidden in Christ! I also knew it was time for me to be more grounded and connected to the body of Christ in Scotland.

Deeper revelation of righteousness had started to increase in my heart, which I knew God had been plowing all year. I feel he is giving his body throughout the world, deeper understanding of his righteousness, our belief systems matter; we are called to believe him. I was beginning to see his love in a greater light.

When I say his body throughout the world I am using the international body of Iris Harvest School 41 as my example of this deeper understanding. I watched the spirit of God quicken spirits to the righteousness revelation, through what he had me teach. He had me lay a stronger foundation down by starting with the blood of Christ, then teaching the first and last Adam. Before taking the school through Romans chapters 6/7/8. This was how I ended 2024.

This year December 2025 is no different; he is still speaking to me about identity in Christ and how understanding righteousness is key. My final assignment for December 2025, by God's design in SBS (Scotland Bible School) is the book of Romans, which is all about the Righteousness of Christ!

My year started on the 4th of January in Sheffield, where I was invited to share on Righteousness for a week, to leaders in a church plant, that I had been to roughly this same time last year. It was known as "the Well Woodseats" but now had a name change from God to be called the Ark. I not only taught leaders but shared with their congregation twice too. It was a full week of meeting people at all different points of the day and having group meetings each evening.

On the day of their commissioning into being independent from the original Baptist church to becoming the Ark at Woodseats, the pastor and his wife asked me to baptise them again. God gave them a deep revelation of this world being crucified to them and only righteousness being left after the flood in Noah's day. They felt their only response in obedience to God was to be baptized into this deeper understanding of Righteousness in order to carry his presence and truth to their community in Sheffield. They see it as a prophetic sign of what is to come, so I was privileged and honored to baptise these amazing leaders. (This brought up religious objections about baptisms but as it is all about relationship with God they were being obedient to his desire) I felt it was another confirmation of him giving greater understanding of his Righteousness.

For the third time, I head to the Ark community in Sheffield in January 2026 to teach at their first ever missions School, which is called ABIDE. They also want me to consider being their sender as Iris Sheffield. I have spoken to Iris leadership about this possibility.

On the 17th of January 2025, I flew to Zurich and found myself offering prayer in the Zurich Hill church. On 21 January my birthday, it would be 500 years since God had raised up the reformation of the anabaptized and there had been a great outpouring of his spirit.

He spoke to me again about prayer and more on the double anointing God has called all his children into and it is that of Kings and Priests. I prayed God would raise up more reformers of his church, especially in my nation Scotland. We so need personal and national revival, which is reformation in us. Again I am reminded of Martin Luther and how his Righteousness by Faith message reformed the church and changed her forever.

God brought to mind again my verse from Hosea 10:12 sow righteousness for yourselves, reap the fruit of unfailing love, and break up your unplowed ground: for it is time to seek the lord until he comes and showers his righteousness on you. I am beginning to feel a deep sense of love as I meditate on righteousness and see it's all by God's mercy.

Friday 31st of January at 2:30pm 2025 we had the Healing Hearts Global annual general meeting and that closes down my legal commitments for OSCAR 2024. HHG is now in a position to close down last year's activities and move forward as the Lord leads. We also need to work on getting a new bank account opened as the previous as reported was closed down by the bank.

February

I had already sensed God telling me to take no invites to speak anywhere but to stay at home and come away with him for the month of February. I thought of the invite on to this unknown path and knew saying No to the invites was saying Yes to something greater.

The month did not turn out to be in any way like I thought it would be, which with God is not a surprise. We can make our plans but he directs our steps.

I spent most of it in Tenerife as my son had an accident and had broken his Femur and I needed to fly out on the 2nd to take care of him. If I had done any of my own plans I would not have been available. While in Tenerife I had many opportunities to talk to people about God and I had two divine appointments, which led to praying the sinner's prayer with two people. As February closed out I heard God say that I was to tarry with him till Shavuot, which is on 1-3 June. As Shavuot is associated with the given of the word, I felt strongly he wanted me to study the word, he spoke to me about Glasgow's motto "Let Glasgow flourish by the preaching of your word and the praise of your name" He brought to mind that Scotland was once known as the land of the book.

March

I got off to a good refreshing start to being back home in Scotland. One of the trustees, Sue, stayed with me for 4 Nights and we were able to pray and have a bible blast together, seeking God for vision for what's ahead. I had a sense it was about choosing to do the right thing regardless of what others would choose. I saw my heart undergoing surgery. Thinking again about Hosea 10:12 and my heart being ploughed.

13-16th I attended a conference in Christchurch, Dorset with Heidi and the organization called "The Send". I was also able to attend the Send event in Glasgow later in the month. Both events were aimed at gen z 18-30 year olds. It was good to see God working in this age group and being one of the great cloud of witnesses, to see God do a new thing in our nation and help pray it in.

During my time in Christchurch I had a meeting with some Iris leaders asking me if I would be a joint sender for a pioneering work that a spiritual son of mine is carrying out in Glasgow. This excites me, as I have always wanted for Iris to be established in some way in Scotland. I just knew I was not called to have a base or run some big project, but I would be part of it somehow. I always felt that God would bring about what he wanted in his timing and this seems to be it.

There is a lot happening spiritually in Scotland, at this present time and is a great encouragement to me but I am not part physically of what God is doing in my nation, although spiritually I am. I know through various confirmations this is my time of transition to new things. I just don't know what God requires of me, which is why I feel he has asked me to tarry/wait on him and he will direct my steps. I do feel the above invite to be a joint sender is from him but I am treading carefully as I went ahead of him last year and he rebuked me.

I also hosted 2 Iris missionaries this month and had community prayer and worship with them.

April

I went to Ireland to tarry with another spiritual daughter who has been following a vision given from God during her Harvest School 6 years ago. She has faced much opposition and many threats. I had gone to see the place for myself, as I had never had an opportunity before now. I wanted to give her some support and impart some spiritual gifts as we would tarry together for the four days.

I had not expected her to ask if it might be possible for her to come under the Iris banner too. I have always kept in touch with her and had Iris teams sent out to give her much needed support at various times. I told her I needed to focus on Iris Glasgow getting up and running as God had called me back to Scotland. She also has a long way to go before it would be a consideration.

I am also videoing some of my Teachings for a Brazil online school at the request of a former Student who is now with the Iris base in San Paulo. Again because of the Brazil connection I felt God wanted me to say yes to their request. My flesh hates videos and listening to my own voice so I would have automatically given them a No. In obedience to God I have agreed and have now sent videos on The Blood of Jesus and on the first to last Adam.

I am also currently still trying to get the Healing Hearts Global bank account reopened!! It has now been almost three months since we started this process and we seem to get blocked again and again by bureaucracy. I have complained to the bank and discussed how we might move forward. I sense God telling me to close everything down, the old has gone but currently I have no access to the 750 pounds that was in the account, so have no option but to get another account opened in order to access the funds and receive my expenses for flights and hotel accommodation in Christchurch from March. I also had to pay an accountant $80 for the bank necessary paperwork.

May

God has confirmed my Tarry time will finish on Shavuot that is on Sunday the first of June through to Tuesday the third. Shavuot is a celebration of when God gave the first five books of the bible to Moses at mount Sinai. It is also the time Christians celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the church.

As I have been praying about a church family and where he desired for me to be placed in his body, he was talking to me about Paisley. This resulted in me attending Re-Hope Paisley and making it my home church.

God has sent various people that I have previously discipled, throughout this month to tarry with me and it has always been such a blessing to me. He also spoke to me about going to the Kingdom come missions' school as a student. It begins on 9-13 June, after a conference that Iris founder Heidi Baker will speak at and is being held in Re-Hope Paisley! He told me my Paul, Barnabas and Timothy were all changing and attending "Kingdom Come" would be part of the change.

Paul I believe equities to spiritual authority, Barnabas to someone I work with or encourage and Timothy for my understanding is a disciple. I will just let it unfold and guess I will have more understanding when I need it.

June

I attended as a Student at the Kingdom Come School just 3 days after my tarry time with God ended. God made it very clear that I was to study his word at the Scotland Bible School while I was in the Kingdom Come School, so I will be enrolling to do the New Testament study for 1 year.

I also felt being a student at the 'Kingdom Come' school gave me insight into the body of Christ in Scotland. There were a variety of people from different social economic groups and denominations, we also had the generations so it was a good place to observe their faith in Christ.

I encountered God in a powerful way on the first evening of school. He took me back to a time when he had marked me for Scotland and showed me his glory in a burning bush experience, which had taken place in Brazil. This time although I was back in the encounter and the flower of Scotland was playing, there were other people in the fire with me. He then spoke to me about Kingdom relationships.

A week after Kingdom Come I headed to America for three weeks. I was attending Iris leadership meetings. It was a time of me ministering to people and also connecting with many spiritual families that I had not seen in a very long time. I received many invites to visit bases internationally or be part of international schools but I heard a No from Holy Spirit. I wasn't surprised as he had already told me not to accept invites to the nations in 2025.

After these leadership meetings we had Iris family gathering, which brings all missionaries from all the bases throughout the world together. A time of refreshing and we have guest speakers from outside our organization come. I know Iris is still very much my tribe and a spiritual family God placed me in for his purposes. God also feeds and encourages me in that family; it is a great blessing to me, it keeps me burning and fuels my passion for Jesus every time I am with any of these burning ones, I get oil.

August

I arrived back from the USA and applied for the Scotland Bible School, despite not having the 2128 pounds that was required for tuition. That very night while I slept someone sent a text from America telling me they wanted to invest in me and had transferred money to my own personal account. So it was the full amount for my Bible School.

Throughout this year I have been giving respite care to my Mother in Love Brigid, she is 98 years old and is experiencing lots of health issues now it has all intensified and my time is being consumed by being part of her care.

September

I was asked to serve at my home church on the Alpha course. I am familiar with Alpha having hosted it in my home 18 years ago and heard a yes from God. I love watching the transformation God does in people during those 10 weeks. Being part of this has been an honour and a blessing from God.

So although my days are often consumed with care and many visits to hospital God keeps focusing me back to Christ with Alpha and also with being a student at SBS. (Scotland Bible School)

October

I was blessed with a much needed break from caring and had a time of refreshment in October with likeminded people in Israel. We were there to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

On return Bridgid's condition had taken a massive turn for the worse and she passed away on the 28th October.

November

Was consumed with everything to do with grief and comforting family and organising a funeral.

December

As I look back on this year I can see it has been a time of Holy surrender. A time of releasing everything I once did with God. Not because it was not fruitful or life giving but because he invited me on an unknown path. It was a life I could not have lived without him. It was exciting and full of adventure, I had experienced so many amazing faith filled people and seen many miracles and experienced God for myself in ways others dream about.

Yet I felt he was calling me into an even deeper place of knowing him. In this place I knew somehow there was a Holy dismantling that had to take place before he started a Holy rebuilding. I could feel the plowing of my heart. It was the space God created for me to receive more revelation of Him, and during this process I have learned a greater trust in him. This trust came in my tarry time. It was a path into what seemed like a wilderness yet I knew it had to be done in order to cross into my promised land. In this time he has revealed himself more intimately in his word. Gave me manna and living water in ways that have sustained me, revived me, and brought me deeper levels of revelation to what I thought I understood. He knew it was exactly what I needed in one of the most personally challenging years of my life.

Future Plans

I feel the old has to be released to make way for the new "forget the former things: do not dwell on the past. See I am doing a new thing (Isaiah 43) So in light of this I want to close down Healing Hearts Global as a charity. I will be bringing this before the Board at the Next annual general meeting.

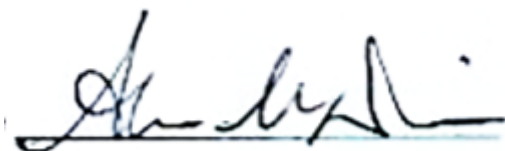

Financial Review
