Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees and Civilian Committee Members

All members are appointed and re-elected at the annual general meeting or can be appointed during the year at committee meetings if necessary.

Charitable Status

The Squadron is a separately constituted charity under reference number SC024729

Charitable Purpose

The Squadron's purpose, as recorded in the generic Air Training Corps constitution, is to promote and encourage among young people a practical interest in aviation and the Royal Air Force; to provide training which will be useful both in the Service and in civilian life, and to foster a spirit of adventure and to develop the qualities of good leadership and good citizenship.

Activities

The current membership is 6 members together with 4 uniformed staff.

After lock down in March 2020 the Squadron did not meet in accordance with Government guidelines. The squadron only restarted in November 2023 after the staff had renewed the necessary qualifications to operate under ATC regulations.
