APPENDIX 1

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

J-Praise International Church is an unincorporated Scottish Registered Charity, governed by the Management Committee as stipulated in the charities Constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustee members are appointed by Annual General Meeting established by the constitution. An induction programme for any new members takes place during the first week of September at which training and governance support is given to ensure that Trustee members are familiar with the Charity's values, aims and responsibilities in their role as designated trustees of the charity.

Objectives, activities and achievements

Charitable purposes

Our main aim is:

- To advance religion through building cooperation between the established and the emerging church communities in Scotland.
- To promote equality and diversity in Scottish Churches and communities.
- To advance citizenship and community cohesion through promoting talents and empowering disadvantaged groups through arts and music.

Summary of the main activities and achievements in relation to these objects

The main activities of J-Praise International include;

Charitable purpose

The purpose of J-Praise International is to provide a service that has been attributed to the secular organizations while still meeting its religious objective without imposing it to any of its service users. The difference with J-Praise International and other organizations is that we provide our services to the people of all faiths and no faith but with the love that Christ himself has for the world. Among other purposes, include;

- Promoting culture
- Advancement of religion
- Advancement of education
- Promotion of equality and diversity
- Advancement of citizenship and community development
- Promotion of social and racial integration – social inclusion.

Summary of the main activities and achievements

The main activities through the year included:

- Church Services – Church services took place every Sunday and Wednesday.
- Youth ministry- Youth ministry organised few outdoor events to get the youth more engaged and involved.
- Improved on food bank- We have expanded the offering in our food and managed to feed more people this year than previous years.
- Children ministry- Organised events for Children on regular occasions
- We helped young ones and young families through seminar and dinner focusing on relationships and marriage with seasoned resource persons.

APPENDIX 1

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

All reserves of J-Praise International are used to support the activities in the community. At the moment the organisation is determined to initiate more community related projects. Therefore, we have started building up our reserve from member's donations which are provided as unrestricted fund.

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention; <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and • to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
