Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

Jed Thistle Rugby Football Club SCIO formed as a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation on the 17th November 2011. The original Jed Thistle Rugby Football Club was first set up as a Youth Rugby Club in 1933 as an unincorporated association and wound up in favour of the SCIO at an Extra Ordinary General Meeting held on the 7th February 2012. The SCIO is administered by its Constitution which has been formally Accepted by the Membership.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees are recruited and appointed in accordance to the rules laid out in our Constitution. Appointment and removal of Trustees can be done at any time with the approval of the majority of the Board. All Trustees retire at the Annual General Meeting but can apply for re-election. On agreeing to become a Trustee, all Trustees are issued with copies of the Club's policies (Child Protection, Equalities, Safeguarding) and Constitution to ensure they are fully aware of their role(s) within the Club. The acceptance of these documents are signed for by the Trustee on issue.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The purpose of the charity is the advancement of public participation in Sport through the practicing and playing of rugby football.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The Jed Thistle club are able to provide training facilities on a weekly basis for their Under 16 and Under 18 teams, with matches against similar opposition most Saturdays for the Under 18 team throughout the rugby season. The Under 16's usually play similar opposition on Wednesday or Friday evenings. The clubrooms are available for hire to all local organisations and individuals throughout the year.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The number of young people in membership of Jed Thistle compared to last season was as follows:

	Under 18	Under 16
2024-25	24	30
2025-26	22	20

Despite our playing numbers being lower this season we have still been able to field a team for most Saturdays for the U-18 team and each Wednesday or Friday for our U-16 team.

U-18's: Played 14, Won 8 Lost 6
U-16's: Played 20, Won 9 Lost 11

On the sevens circuit the U-18's were competitive and finished runners-up at our own tournament, with the U-16's also being competitive and winning the Peebles tournament.
On the Scottish Cup front, the U-18's were knocked out in the 1st round, but ended up in the Shield final where they were beaten by Strathmore.

There were a number of our players who achieved representative honours for the South of Scotland, with 2 of the U-18 team making the South U-17 and U-18 squads, with 4 players from the U-16 team making the South of Scotland U-16 squad.

Our annual Jed Thistle Sevens Tournament was also a great success, attracting a good crowd on the day with some excellent ties. Income from the event created much needed funding for the club.

Improvements to the clubrooms are still ongoing and will be completed during the 2026-27 season.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

There is no specific level set for normal reserves outside of any Capital Grant funding carried over from previous years, but the club still have sufficient funds to cover a full-year's expenditure.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
