

LIVINGSTON PLAYERS

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 2026

PRESIDENT REPORT

2nd July 2026

Introduction

Good evening everyone, and thank you all for coming along and supporting our 2026 AGM. Before I begin, I would like to warmly welcome Elizabeth Donald, our NODA Scotland Area Area 3 representative, who has kindly agreed to act as Chairperson for this evening's meeting.

So before I say anything more, I'll hand the Chair over to Elizabeth.

President Report

Thank you to Elizabeth for chairing this meeting this evening, and thank you to all of you, our loyal members, for being here.

This is my first report as President and unlike the Treasurer's report, which focuses on the financial year, my report covers everything that has happened from one AGM to the next and when I sat down to look back over everything we have done this year, I realised one thing very quickly...

We really do not know how to sit still, do we?

It has been another incredibly busy, successful and memorable year for the Livingston Players, and tonight I'd like to take some time to reflect on everything we have achieved together.

So let's begin where this very busy year started...

A Celebration of Musical Showstoppers

November 2025

Our first major production following last year's AGM was A Celebration of Musical Showstoppers, performed at Reconnect Howden Park in November 2025.

This production was particularly special as it celebrated our 55th Club Anniversary, and what a wonderful way it was to mark such an important milestone in our history. The show featured an incredible mix of musical numbers from productions we have staged over the years, alongside exciting new material that members were passionate about performing. Personally, I do not think I will ever forget The Rhythm of Life... mainly because I am still recovering from trying to say those lyrics at speed. I think that song alone deserves some sort of occupational hazard payment.

A huge thank you goes to John Hutchinson, who provided fantastic narration throughout the production, taking audiences on a journey through the history of the Livingston Players since our formation in 1970. His stories tied together so many of the productions we have staged over the years while also sharing some wonderfully funny backstage stories and production mishaps along the way.

With 26 separate numbers to rehearse and perform, this was no small undertaking and everyone involved gave it absolutely everything. What made this production particularly special was the inclusion of both our adult and youth members performing together as one company. It was wonderful to see that sense of unity across all generations within the club, and the commitment shown by everyone learning songs, choreography and bringing so much energy to the stage was simply outstanding.

Productions like this do not simply happen by accident.

They take dedication, organisation, creativity... and usually a slightly concerning amount of caffeine. I want to give special thanks to Louise Fairnie and Chiara Loia, who led the project as Co-Directors, alongside Anna as Musical Director and Ewan as Choreographer. They guided us with equal parts patience, encouragement, support... and of course sweeties. They somehow managed to take a group of us with very varying levels of coordination and ability and turn it into a polished and entertaining production.

The creativity and vision shown throughout this process was exceptional, and the feedback from audiences was overwhelmingly positive. It truly showcased the incredible talent that exists within the Livingston Players.

But of course, we must also recognise our backstage heroes.

A huge thank you goes to Andrew Brown, who stepped into the role of Stage Manager for his debut and this production, alongside the fantastic crew of Amy, Nic, Grant, Mhairi, Charlotte, Fiona and John Hutchinson.

And to everyone involved in set building, props, sound and all the countless jobs that audiences never see but productions absolutely depend on...

Thank you.

You all played an enormous part in making this production such a fantastic success.

The Full Monty

January 2026

Our next production was our January play, The Full Monty and wow....what a production that was.

Directed by John Doonan, supported by Sarah Louise or Slou, as most of us know her; as Choreographer, this production was an outstanding success.

One of the most positive aspects of this production was that it brought a number of new male members into the club, something we have very much welcomed and greatly needed. Together with a fantastic female cast, the company worked incredibly hard to bring this production to life.

The production was very close to being a sell-out, and while there were certainly a few memorable audience challenges, and I think Saturday night may have tested everyone's patience just a little, our cast handled everything with professionalism and kept going brilliantly.

This production brought laughter, energy and exactly the kind of entertainment needed during those cold January nights. John and Slou, thank you both for all the hard work you put into making this such a success.

And Slou... thank you for delivering that unforgettable dance routine and that moment.

I'll leave that there.

As always, a huge thank you goes to everyone involved behind the scenes, backstage teams, set builders, props, sound teams, front of house helpers, committee members and all those who worked tirelessly to bring the production together.

As a wonderful surprise for both cast and audience alike, we were joined on the Saturday evening by Kennie Simon, current tribute lead singer of Hot Chocolate, who performed You Sexy Thing honestly and the response from the audience and standing ovation at the end of the evening was a perfect way to finish a brilliant show week.

And as if that was not enough...

Following the fantastic production and outstanding performances, we were delighted to win the Scottish Community Drama Association Full Length Play Festival, receiving the Fraser Neale Trophy for the sixth time since 1992.

An incredible achievement.

Congratulations to everyone involved.

All Shook Up

2026 Adult Musical

February saw the beginning of rehearsals for our adult musical production of All Shook Up.

A show packed with the music of Elvis Presley, energy, humour and songs instantly recognisable to many of our audiences.

One of the most exciting things about this production was seeing the incredible talent that came through auditions. We welcomed new members, returning members and current members alike, and the standard we saw during auditions was simply exceptional. It reminded us all once again just how much talent exists within this company.

A special congratulations goes to Jamie Edwardson, who took on his first lead role with us and delivered an absolutely impeccable and believable performance as Chad. He was supported by a tremendously strong principal cast whose commitment and performances were exceptional from auditions, throughout rehearsals and all the way through to performance week. To every principal performer, thank you.

And to our fantastic ensemble...

You truly brought this production to life. You gave us energy, laughter, unforgettable moments and the support needed to make everything come together. You were brilliant.

I would like to give special thanks to the incredible production team who supported me throughout this production. To Ewan and Anna, thank you for your dedication, commitment and for supporting not only the production itself but also supporting me personally throughout the entire process. I am genuinely proud of what we achieved together and I thank you both sincerely.

Of course, again massive thanks must also go to all our backstage and support teams, led by Amy as Stage Manager, alongside Ali Glidden, Grant Collier, Iona Dixon, Abbie Fairnie, and everyone involved in set building, props, sound and visuals, wardrobe, front of house, committee support, and the wonderful staff at Reconnect Howden Park Centre for helping us bring the production to stage.

And a very personal thank you to Pam and Jo, who helped me with costume transport, and Pam for props, logistics and approximately fifty other jobs I probably did not even notice happening.

Unfortunately, despite the quality of the production, ticket sales did not meet expectations, Selling only 62% of available tickets means the production will unfortunately result in a significant financial loss. It is disappointing because the quality of the show far outweighed the figures, and audience feedback was overwhelmingly positive.

Having spoken with the team at Reconnect Howden Park, this appears to reflect a wider trend affecting many productions currently. The committee will be reviewing this carefully as we consider how we move forward and how we continue to maintain strong audience engagement.

This year we also took a different approach to promotion for All Shook Up, working alongside Helios to create a professional promotional video and a filmed production for the cast.

I have to say, what they produced for us was absolutely outstanding and has significantly strengthened our social media presence.

A special thank you to Jo for organising this.

School of Rock

September 2026 Production

Because apparently rest is not something we believe in...

We moved very quickly on to our current production, School of Rock, with rehearsals beginning in June.

This exciting youth and adult production will take to the stage in September.

Leading the production team is Niall King as Director, Rachel Mulholland as Musical Director, and Chloe McLean as Choreographer. As a new production team, we wish them every possible success.

And to our fantastic cast, Stick It To The Man this September. I genuinely cannot wait to see this production come to life. From what I have seen already, I can confidently say...It is going to be epic.

We have also partnered with Sign at Events, a British Sign Language interpretation provider, to provide interpretation for one of our matinee performances.

This is supported by Reconnect Howden Park and allows us to reach wider audiences while continuing to improve accessibility and inclusivity within what we do.

This is something we are very proud to be introducing.

Showstoppers

November 2026

Looking ahead, we will once again be holding our Showstoppers event on 12th, 13th and 14th November at the church. This event is being organised by Sam Vankempen, Zander Cruickshank and Ewan Ferguson.

This is a fantastic opportunity for members across the company to get involved and perform.

More details will be shared in due course, so please keep an eye on them.

Noises Off

January 2027

Some of you may remember that in January 2025 we successfully secured the licence for Noises Off, however unfortunately at that time we were unable to cast the production.

Now, while disappointing...We are not a group that gives up easily. So, after dusting ourselves off and trying again, I'm delighted to confirm that our January 2027 play will officially be Noises Off.

This very funny production, which many people describe as the original version of The Play That Goes Wrong, will be directed by John Hutchinson.

We have scheduled the following dates:

Read Through – Thursday 17th September

Auditions – Monday 21st September

We are incredibly excited about this production and hope to see a fantastic turnout for both the readthrough and auditions.

So good luck to everyone involved and may theatrical chaos remain strictly on stage.

Charity Work

One thing that has always been incredibly important to the Livingston Players is our commitment to supporting charitable causes and giving back to our wider community.

Each year, alongside producing shows and events, we make a conscious effort to raise money for charities that are meaningful to both our members and the communities around us.

I am incredibly proud to say that this year has once again been a very successful one in that regard.

During our 55th Anniversary Dinner Dance, we raised £172.82 for the My Name's Doddie Foundation, which is a Scottish motor neuron disease charity that is very close to the hearts of many of our members.

For our 55th Anniversary Showstoppers production, we supported The Wee Hours, a wonderful charity helping people experiencing homelessness in Edinburgh by distributing essentials such as clothing, food, toiletries and more. I am delighted to say we raised £1,000. A cheque was presented to founder Donna Ewing by Gill, Jamie, Jo and Mair, who also spent time helping support the charity directly in Edinburgh one evening.

Andy's Man Club was supported during the run of The Full Monty and we raised another fantastic £1,000 in support of men's wellbeing.

During All Shook Up, we raised £700 for West Lothian Food Train, a Scottish charity supporting older people in West Lothian.

And for our upcoming production of School of Rock, we will be supporting Reconnect Rock School, who are currently developing exciting new premises in Blackburn where they are creating a rock school studio for both young people and adults alike.

Supporting charitable causes is something we will always continue to champion as a society.

And if any member has a charity close to their heart that they would like the committee to consider in future...

Please let us know.

Social Events

As much as we pride ourselves on the productions we put on stage, it is equally important that we continue building the social side of the club and creating opportunities for members, families and friends to come together away from rehearsals.

Because as much as we all love theatre...

It is occasionally nice to see each other when no one is carrying a prop, looking for missing costume pieces, or asking where the extension leads have disappeared to.

This year we have had some fantastic social events.

In February 2026, we held a Quiz Night, organised by Steve Collier.

It was wonderful to see both youth and adult members involved together, creating a genuinely fun evening for everyone. We all attempted to solve the many cryptic clues, answer questions correctly, and maintain a healthy level of competitiveness, although I suspect some tables interpreted healthy competitiveness slightly differently.

A huge thank you to Steve and Carol for organising such a successful evening, and to all members, family and friends who came along to support us.

In March 2026, we hosted a Murder Mystery Night, performed by Winchburgh Drama Group led by Ewan Hepburn.

The production, Mystic Myrtle's Murder Mystery by Richard Adams, was performed on 14th March, and what a fantastic evening it was. Members, family and friends all came together to solve the mystery... or in many cases confidently accuse the wrong person entirely.

It was a hugely entertaining evening and thoroughly enjoyed by everyone who attended. A massive thank you to Ewan and Winchburgh Drama Group for putting together such a brilliant fundraiser, and to all our members for supporting it so enthusiastically.

In September 2025, we held our long-awaited 55th Anniversary Dinner Dance at Livingston Football Club. This was particularly special because we had originally hoped to celebrate our 50th Anniversary in 2020, but unfortunately, as we all know, Covid had very different plans for everybody.

It was wonderful to finally come together and celebrate this milestone.

A huge thank you goes to the committee for organising the evening and to all members who attended and supported the event.

We were wonderfully entertained by Brian Robertson's Band and of course Graham Walker, whose DJ skills ensured the dance floor remained busy.

It really was a fantastic evening and one I know many of us will remember fondly.

Looking Ahead – Upcoming Social Events

As we move through the remainder of the year, we still have several exciting events planned.

Tomorrow evening, yes, literally tomorrow 3rd July, we will be holding our All Shook Up Film Night for members who wish to attend. This marks the first time, I believe, that Livingston Players has professionally filmed one of our productions for cast members to keep as a lasting memory of their involvement. And frankly, after the work everyone put into that production, I think seeing yourselves on screen is fully deserved.

In October 2026, we are planning a Halloween Evening on Saturday 31st October.

In November 2026, as already mentioned our Showstoppers production is taking place on 12th, 13th and 14th November, the organising team of Sam Vankempen, Zander Cruickshank and Ewan Ferguson will be sharing further details on how members can become involved.

In December 2026, we will be holding a Movie Night on 5th December.

And yes...

We are still deciding on the movie.

No pressure there.

2027 Social Calendar

Looking ahead to 2027, we already have several social events planned.

January 2027 – we are planning a Quiz Night – 16th January

February 2027 – Burns Night – 20th February

March 2027 – Open Mic Night – 20th March

So please keep an eye out for further details as they come through.

Management Issues – Store Premises

I now want to touch on one of the more important operational challenges currently facing the club.

As many of you know, we currently use storage facilities located at the old Freeport site. Unfortunately, these premises are no longer fit for purpose. We have experienced increasing security concerns, and it is no longer considered a safe environment for Grant and the team to continue carrying out regular work there.

We have also been informed that the site is expected to be redeveloped into an AI database centre or at least something of that description. We are actively seeking alternative premises and have already visited and applied for a unit at the old Motorola site in Bathgate. Unfortunately, we have not yet received confirmation regarding this option, which has been disappointing. However, we continue to pursue every avenue available.

We are also currently exploring another possible opportunity in West Calder, which was kindly brought to our attention by Pete Sneddon. I have arranged a viewing for 8th July, and fingers crossed it's a promising option for us. However, I do want to be honest and say that if we are unable to secure suitable premises, the committee may need to make some significant decisions about how we continue supporting productions in relation to set building, storage, props and future logistics.

If any members have ideas, contacts or recommendations that may help us...

Please come and speak with us.

Marketing and Publicity

As the world continues moving forward, usually faster than most of us can keep up with, it is increasingly important that the Livingston Players remain visible, relevant and actively engaged within today's world.

Over recent years, it has become clear that we needed to strengthen our approach to marketing and publicity. After discussion within the committee, we recognised the importance of bringing additional expertise into this area and as a result, we were delighted to appoint Jamie Edwardson to the role of Publicity and PR.

In short...

Jamie is now our resident marketing guru. His role will focus on increasing awareness of the club, strengthening relationships with businesses, expanding our social media reach, and helping ensure that Livingston Players remain visible and active all year round.

This has already become an extremely valuable addition to our communications strategy.

I also want to acknowledge our dedicated show social media teams, who continue to do fantastic work promoting productions, events and creating programmes. All of this work often happens quietly behind the scenes but it is absolutely vital in helping us grow and reach wider audiences.

Youth Representation

One of the things we remain strongly committed to is ensuring our youth members continue to feel represented, supported and involved within the club.

Following the departure of Erin Boyd and Abbie Gilland from their Youth Representative roles, we began seeking interested members who wished to step forward.

I am delighted to say that Aisling Crosbie has now joined us in this role.

Aisling is currently working closely with Scott to strengthen our youth programme and ensure our younger members continue to have strong representation within the club.

Thank you, Aisling, for taking this on.

We are very grateful for your support and the work you are already doing.

Membership Fees – 2026/27

Following a review of our membership fees, the committee has taken the decision that an increase is now necessary.

We have worked very hard over many years to keep membership fees as affordable as possible.

However, as costs continue to rise and as we work to maintain the standards and opportunities we provide as a society, an increase is unfortunately unavoidable.

Membership fees for 2026/27 will now be as follows:

Full Performing Members – £60

Concessions — Under 18s, Over 65s, Students and Unemployed – £30

Non-Playing Members – £20

We are also introducing a payment plan option for members who may wish to spread payments over time, and full information on this will be shared shortly.

It is important to note that even with these changes, compared with many other societies, we remain one of the lowest-cost memberships around.

Membership fees will become due following the conclusion of this AGM and Carol will be actioning this accordingly.

So unfortunately...

If anyone was hoping I might forget to mention that part...

I have not.

Youth Bursary

The committee is also currently working toward introducing a Youth Bursary Programme for our younger members. This is something we feel very strongly about and believe will help support youth participation and development within the society going forward.

Further details will be shared with members in due course.

Friends of Livingston Players

Following last year's AGM, we officially launched Friends of Livingston Players, or as many of us now know it...FOLP, or as Louise liked to call it FLIP

The aim was to help build a loyal audience base for our productions while encouraging wider community engagement and helping spread awareness of the fantastic work our company does. We have already seen encouraging early engagement, but this is something we will continue working hard to promote further.

It is a fantastic gift idea for family members, friends, or anyone who enjoys supporting local theatre. We greatly appreciate your continued help promoting this initiative. And as always...

If you have ideas on how we can improve or grow this further...

Please share them with us.

Production Teams

As we look toward the future of our productions, the committee has begun taking a slightly different approach to how we appoint production teams.

Some of you may already have seen that we have recently started advertising openly for both musical and play production teams for upcoming productions. This approach is an important step forward for us.

We believe these opportunities should be available to a wider range of people so that we continue operating transparently, avoid becoming static in our approach, and ensure we continue attracting the right expertise, fresh ideas and new creative talent into the company.

We also recognise the importance of supporting emerging directors and helping people develop their skills within the organisation. Applications will therefore continue to be open to both existing members and external candidates alike for productions moving forward.

We introduced this approach for School of Rock, and I am pleased to say it worked extremely well. This will continue to be our approach going forward.

That being said...

This does not remove the committee's ability to approach Directors directly when circumstances require it and where it is felt necessary for the wider interests of the club.

So in short...

Transparency, opportunity and flexibility.

And hopefully slightly fewer committee headaches.

First Aiders

The safety and well-being of our members remains incredibly important to us.

We are continually looking to expand our team of qualified first aiders within the club.

Recently Jo, Zander and Jamie attended a first aid course organised by LAMP alongside participants from a number of other societies.

I am delighted to report they all passed. Which is excellent news. Mainly because now if any of us collapse during tech week, we know who to run toward.

A huge congratulations to all three of you.

We are always looking for more members to join our first aid team, so if you already hold a valid certificate or are interested in becoming involved, please let Pam know.

Play Reading Committee

We continue to move forward with our Play Reading Committee, which remains an important part of helping us identify future productions and creative opportunities for the company.

I would like to thank everyone who contacted me in response to the email I sent out in March regarding continuing involvement. A special thank you goes to Judith and Kate, who have kindly agreed to continue leading the group. Thank you both for your continued commitment and support.

And if anyone else would like to become involved in reading scripts and helping shape future productions...

Please let us know. Although fair warning...

You may discover very quickly that reading dozens of scripts makes you unexpectedly opinionated about punctuation.

Players Pals

This year we introduced our Players Pals concept, and I want to take a moment to thank everyone who has supported this initiative. This was created as a way of allowing every member to become involved in helping the club in whatever way they feel able. Whether that has been supporting events, helping with set building, front of house duties, backstage assistance, transporting equipment, or simply volunteering time where needed, it has been incredibly valuable.

The reality is that clubs like ours survive not simply because of those performing under the spotlight but because of the people quietly doing the hundreds of jobs around the edges that allow everything else to happen.

To everyone who has contributed through Players Pals, thank you. Your time and support is genuinely appreciated.

Acknowledgements

I now want to take some time to acknowledge and thank several individuals who deserve special recognition.

This year we have two committee members stepping down.

Firstly, Louise Fairnie.

Louise, I want to thank you sincerely for your years of commitment, leadership and support to Livingston Players.

On a personal level, I particularly want to thank you for being my sounding board as I stepped into the role of President. Your support, encouragement and guidance have meant an enormous amount to me throughout my first year, and I am incredibly grateful.

Secondly, Abbie Fairnie.

Abbie, thank you for the incredible support you have given the club over so many years. Your work with sound, visuals and projections across what I believe has been 32 productions is an extraordinary contribution to this company.

Thank you for supporting our committee through your work with social media, merchandise, Friends of Livingston Players, make-up workshops, and for helping Jamie and Zander learn the technical sound and visuals side of productions.

We truly appreciate everything you have contributed and wish you every success in your next adventures.

Committee Members

To my committee colleagues...

Thank you.

As this has been my first year as President, stepping into this role naturally came with a lot of responsibility. The support each of you has given me throughout this year has been invaluable.

It is incredibly reassuring to know that we are working together positively, collaboratively and with a shared vision for the future of the club. I genuinely appreciate the support, advice and encouragement each of you has provided.

We are doing fantastic work together, and I look forward to continuing that journey with all of you.

Thank you.

Backstage Teams

To our backstage teams...

Quite simply...

The show really does not go on without you.

While audiences see the performances on stage, what they often do not see is the enormous amount of work happening behind the scenes to make productions look polished, professional and seamless.

And usually fixing disasters the rest of us have created approximately thirty seconds before curtain up.

The time, effort and dedication you all give to this company is extraordinary.

Thank you for everything you do.

Members

And finally, to all our members.

Thank you for performing.

Thank you for volunteering.

Thank you for supporting productions.

Thank you for helping at events.

And thank you for continuing to help keep this company doing what it does best...

Entertaining people and bringing theatre to our community.

This club exists because of its members.

And I hope every single one of you knows how valued and appreciated you are.

Special Congratulations

There are several people I would also like to congratulate this evening.

Firstly, Steve Collier, who was awarded the National Operatic and Dramatic Association (NODA) Commendation Award during All Shook Up.

This award recognised Steve's incredible contribution in photographing productions for the company since 2006. Steve, thank you for your long-standing commitment and everything you continue to do for us.

Secondly, Abbie Fairnie, who was also presented with a special thank you during All Shook Up in recognition of her many years of service and outstanding contribution to the company.

Congratulations also go to Lauren Clarke, who welcomed baby Ava in February. Congratulations to you, Reece, Steve Clarke and all the family on your wonderful new arrival.

We also want to congratulate Jo Robertson and Andrew Brown, who will be getting married this July. We wish you both a wonderful wedding day and every happiness for the future together.

Congratulations to Chiara Loia and Lisa, who will also be getting married in September. We wish you both every happiness as you begin this exciting new chapter together.

Apparently love really has been in the air at Livingston Players this year. Which is lovely...

And lastly to Scott Glidden who will graduate on Friday with a Software Engineering Degree, well done Scott for navigating your way through that when also taking part in ASU.

Looking Forward

As we look ahead to the future, we have some incredibly exciting productions coming up.

Our musical productions for 2027 have now been confirmed.

In May 2027, our adult musical production will be Chess and in September 2027, we will stage the youth musical production of Les Misérables marking the 10-year anniversary since we last performed this incredible show.

We are currently in the process of confirming production teams for both shows, and all will be revealed very soon.

Looking ahead to 2028, we will also begin consulting members regarding suggestions for future productions. Scott will be leading on this so please keep an eye out for further information.

It is incredibly important to us that members continue helping shape the future direction of this company.

Obituaries

Before I close this evening, I would like to take a moment to remember members of our Livingston Players family who sadly passed away this year.

It is with great sadness that we remember:

Sue Rankine
Paul Wandless
Jinty Ramsay

All three were valued members of our wider theatrical family and will be remembered fondly.

At this point, I would like to ask everyone to take a quiet moment in recognition and remembrance.

Pause

Thank you all.

Closing Remarks

And so, as I bring my very first President's AGM report to a close...

Firstly, I want to thank every one of you for coming along this evening. I will admit, preparing my first AGM address as President has been a little nerve-wracking...Alright, quite a lot nerve-wracking. But standing here tonight and reflecting on everything we have achieved together over the last year has reminded me of one very important thing.

This club is extraordinary.

We have incredible talent, dedicated volunteers, people who give countless hours both on stage and behind the scenes, and above all, a community that continues to support one another and build something truly special together. I am genuinely proud to serve as President of Livingston Players, and incredibly proud of everything we have achieved this year.

The future ahead is exciting. There will always be challenges, but there will also always be the passion, creativity, commitment and determination that has kept this company thriving for over 55 years. And I have absolutely no doubt that together we will continue building on that success. So for now... Thank you for your support. Thank you for listening and thank you for making my first year as President such a memorable one. I will now hand you back to Elizabeth.
