At each AGM, all the charity trustees must retire from office, but may then be re-elected. Charity Trusteeship is open to; any person aged 16 or over; and any individual who has been nominated for membership by an unincorporated organisation; and who subscribes to the purposes of the organisation and wishes to see them fulfilled.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

Love Orkney's charitable purposes are: the advancement of religion, the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The organisation is established for charitable purposes only, and in particular, the objects are: To advance the Christian faith in the community of Orkney through service to the people of Orkney and providing opportunities for prayer and fellowship. In addition, the provision of recreational facilities, in the form of a bus, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons in the community of Orkney.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Love Orkney has had a great year, with a number of ups and downs. There were difficult times for the bus, however we are working out the vision with God's help and it is a privilege to pray for people. We plan to take the bus to Birsay again so it becomes familiar to those who come to the broch.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

There is no current reserves policy, however the trustees feel that the unrestricted funds held at the end of the year are adequate to cover any unexpected expenditure.

Details of any deficit

Donated facilities and services (if any)
