Maintenance of physical and online worship
Carrying-out evangelistic activities, visitations, assistance to bereaved families and community engagement
Organise/participate in activities in support of Christian religion
Engagement with other church groups and promotion of youth activities and public worship
Liaising with registered UK companies, charities and individuals in sourcing places of worship in Glasgow.
During the course of the year, we regularly commuted to Aberdeen church (a journey of 6 hours) for ministerial support.
We also visited severally MFM Tentmakers Belfast, and MFM Dundee Goshen Assembly for ministerial support.
I also initiated and do run a prayer meeting/ministerial deliverance in support of pastors in MFM Scotland (Glasgow and Aberdeen - MFMUK Region 9), MFM Tentmakers Belfast branch and MFM Goshen Assembly Dundee on a weekly basis.
We are relentlessly looking for a place of worship as majority of the members do prefer physical meetings.
We are in active discussion and preparation to share on a temporary basis a place for worship after viewing several places in Glasgow.
The building of interest is under refurbishment, needing furnishing and audio-visual equipment when completed.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The abrupt closure of bank account in March 2021 affected donations, offering and other financial contribution. Attempts at opening new account became successful in November 2025 after nearly 5years. This will be officially reflected in the 2025/2026 reporting year.
Article 14 of the Constitution remain the policy statement guiding any reserves we may have in the future.

Details of any deficit

A deficit of over £3,660 was incurred in telephone bills, zoom subscription, local, national and international travels for conferences, ministerial training, support of branches and meetings on behalf of the ministry.

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Pastoral and ministerial coordination of MFM UK Region 9, (Glasgow and Aberdeen), MFM Tentmakers Belfast, and MFM Dundee, Goshen Assembly continued with support from Mrs. Nguumbur Abu supporting in weekly women prayer meeting. Joseph Abu assisted in technical services. All were done in cash and kind as needs arose and highly commended for their sacrificial love.
