Scottish Charity Number: SC053924

Legal Form: Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO)

Trustees During the Period:

- Ameer Din
- Ruzwan Mohammad
- Umran Amin

Charitable Purposes

The Muslim Wellbeing Foundation exists to advance mental health and wellbeing within Muslim communities by improving access to culturally and faith-sensitive support. The charity seeks to bring together mental health professionals, community organisations and faith leaders to promote good practice, raise awareness, reduce barriers to accessing support, and encourage the development of high-quality services.

Activities and Achievements

During the reporting period the charity remained in its establishment and development phase.

The trustees focused on:

- Establishing governance arrangements;
- Developing the organisational vision, mission and strategic direction;
- Engaging with stakeholders and mental health professionals;
- Exploring the mental health and wellbeing needs of Muslim communities;
- Planning future education, training and awareness initiatives.

No charitable services were delivered, no grants were awarded and no fundraising activities were undertaken during the reporting period.

Financial Review

The charity received a trustee contribution of £10.00 during the reporting period.

Expenditure consisted solely of a card setup fee of £9.95 associated with establishing the charity's banking arrangements.

At 31 January 2026, the charity held cash funds of £0.05.

Reserves Policy

As the charity remains in its development phase and has not yet commenced operational activities, the trustees have not adopted a formal reserves policy. This will be reviewed as the charity develops.

Independent Examiner's Report

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of the Muslim Wellbeing Foundation (SC053924)

I report on the accounts of the charity for the period ending 31 January 2026 which are set out in this report.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
    - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act; and
    - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Regulations

have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
