Managers' Report 2024 – 2025

Diamonds:

Diamonds continues to meet every Thursday from 12:30 till 3PM.

We have various groups in to entertain with the ukulele bands being big favourites. We have also had people from the Bank of Scotland in advising on web safety and fraud.

Last year's trip was to Loch Lomond and was enjoyed by those who went.

We still struggle sometimes for volunteers and have made invitation to some people to help out. Also, drivers for the bus could be an issue.

The bus brings in around 16 people and as such because of wheelchairs and walking aids, has to make two trips.

We have had a few fundraising events which were organised by the members themselves which added to funds.

In the kitchen we have worked with volunteers and a chef who comes in on a fairly regular basis and cooks for us as well as training volunteers in the kitchen.

Independent Examiner's Report

For the year ended 28/02/2025

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 28th February 2025

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulation 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention.

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - To keep accounting records in accordance with section 44 (1) (a) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations an
  - To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

Have not met; or
2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Manager's Report: Diamonds group continues meeting on Thursdays, with an average of 40 people attending weekly. In addition to providing nutritious meals, and a place to meet and socialise, there's entertainment, useful information and advice from institutions such as the Royal Bank of Scotland, and other agencies, who can give advice and answer questions the attendees might have.

The bus is now doing two journeys to bring people to the meeting and take them home again. There are two reliable volunteer drivers, but occasionally it is necessary to use a driver at a cost of approximately £100.

The members enjoyed a trip to Loch Lomond again this year.

The group has fundraising activities such as Bring & Buy sales etc which helps to offset expenses.

The cook who is providing the meals is not available every week, and on these occasions, members have a light lunch provided by the volunteers. Derek and his wife have offered to help with catering for Diamonds on the occasions that

Treasurer's Report: The Trust received a grant of £3000 which was an increase on the £1000 last year. The accounts have been audited and returned.
