Trustee recruitment and appointment

Charity trusteeship is open to any person ages 16 or over; and/or any individual who has been nominated for membership by an unincorporated organisation; and/or any corporate body that subscribes to the purposes of the organisation and wishes to see them fulfilled.

Any person, nominated individual or body who/which wishes to become a charity trustee must sign a written application for charity trusteeship; and for a corporate body, that application must be signed by an appropriately authorised officer of that body who will remain as the representative of that corporate body until such time as the corporate body informs the Board otherwise.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To support people who are dying and alone, and those with families. To deliver end of life care package/gift to help families caring for a loved one at home. To support people who are grieving. To help change the way we care for our dying in the community, and nationally.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Support people who are dying through offering one to one support and then vigiling support in the final few days. To offer bereavement support through one to one support and through peer support facilitated at our bereavement support groups.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We took on our first premises and our referrals more than tripled, we built stronger relationships with local GPs and other healthcare workers and organisations.

We continued to expand our services and offered a wider range of support groups including a drama group, French language group, women's group, youth group and bereaved parents group.

We have continued building our Sandy's Toolbox delivering end of care packages to those who have families, or friends, caring for them.

We took on a fourth member of staff.

Financial review

Set out on pages								(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)
Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]
	1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
	2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
