Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

Freuchie in Flower is a single tiered Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) governed by a constitution which sets out its purpose and structure and describes how it will operate.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees are also Members of the organisation. Under the provisions of the constitution, no-one can be a member unless they are also a charity trustee of the organisation. The Board may at any time appoint any person to be a charity trustee by way of a resolution passed by majority vote at a board meeting.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To advance citizenship and community development through the encouragement of a flower planting project for the benefit of all and encouraging cooperation and mutual support of the local environment throughout the KY15 7 area of Freuchie

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

- Recruited volunteers to deliver the project
- Raised funds to cover the cost of delivering 2 planting schemes
- Planted a winter scheme comprising tete a tetes and tulips
- Grew summer plants from plugs in our polytunnel
- Transplanted fuchsia, helichysum, osteospermum, geraniums and barista into 132 tubs, planters and hanging baskets around the village to provide a colourful summer planting scheme
- Took on the care of flower beds around the village
- Raised the profile of the project within the village and enhanced civic pride

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

- Increased the number of villagers volunteering with the project
- Took on additional activities including spearheading a project to get villagers to clean up Freuchie Den
- Designed and built a new floral structure at the entrance to the village
- Designed and built small planters to replace some glass panes in a disused telephone box adding more colour and interest to the village
- Took on the maintenance of the Community Orchard and planted a wild flower meadow in the undergrowth
- Provided a planting scheme for the War Memorial in the village
- Held 3 fund raising events – a spring coffee morning, festive Christmas treats event and a sponsored 3 Peaks Challenge
- Promoted our activities to the wider community through a Freuchie in Flower facebook page and articles in the village newsletter

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Freuchie in Flower has no formal reserves policy. We raise funding to deliver the project and operate within our means. We also receive donations from villagers who are appreciative of the charity's work to make the village a nice place to live. Trustees have recently discussed setting aside funds to replace our watering truck should the need arise.

Details of any deficit

There is no deficit.

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Freuchie in Flower's polytunnel is situated in the grounds of Freuchie Bowling Club. The Bowling Club leases the land from Fife Council.
