Dear Sir

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st March 2026 which are set out on the enclosed pages.

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland)Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the 2006 Account Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1)© of the Act and to state whether matters have come to my attention.

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Account Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention.

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements, to keep accounting records and to prepare accounts with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Account Regulations have not been met, or
2. To which in my opinion attention should be drawn to in order to enable proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
