Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The Ecclesia is an unincorporated non-trading religious body.

The Rule Book provides the framework in which The Ecclesia operates. As such, it also refers to the basis of beliefs of members as contained in a separate Statement of Faith that is also accepted by many other Christadelphian Ecclesias in Britain and around the world.

The Ecclesia operates autonomously amongst other Christadelphian Ecclesias within Central Fellowship. Each Ecclesia has its own organisational structure depending on the requirements of each.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

An election is held annually for members to appoint the office bearers for administering the affairs of the Ecclesia. These include the Secretary and Treasurer, who by reason of their office are trustees.
