

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The primary purposes of the Ecclesia are:

- a. To encourage and help people of any ethnic origin, faith, age, political persuasion to:
 - a. read the Bible
 - b. gain an understanding of its message
 - c. personally apply the principles and practices in life that are shown to be pleasing to God
- b. To support such as share an understanding and belief of key issues of the Bible in upholding a way of life that is consistent with them.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The key activities include the following:

1. Holding public Bible reading groups and addresses on a variety of topics as advertised in the press, Bible Study Classes, and facilitated other youth activities.
2. Youth activities incorporating both educational and recreational activities have been arranged and supported in both Scotland and England.
3. Correspondence courses to help people understand how to read the Bible effectively and to gain an insight into its message were distributed both locally and overseas to anyone who has requested them. Discussions with anyone interested in reading the Bible.
4. Providing funding for a variety of charitable causes.
5. Preparing for and implementing one-off projects such as a Bible Exhibition or a Bible Campaign.