Rosskeen Free Church of Scotland

The trustees present their annual report and financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the accounts and comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with FRS 102.

Objectives and Activities

The Free Church of Scotland currently has over 140 congregations in Scotland, as well as 2 in London and 5 in North America, and sister Churches founded by mission work in India, Peru and South Africa. The Church also has a full time college in the heart of Edinburgh for the training of Ministers and other Christian workers and sustains an extensive Missionary programme relative to the size of the church.

Dating from 1843 but with its roots in the Reformation, it owes its distinctive title to its historical struggle to remain 'free' from state interference in its internal affairs. It has close and active relations with many other Reformed churches of Jesus Christ throughout the world and stands firmly in the tradition which accepts the Bible in its entirety as the Word of God and, therefore, derives its forms of teaching, worship, ministry and government from it. The main emphasis of our worship is the preaching of the gospel - the good news of a free and sovereign salvation through Jesus Christ alone.

Rosskeen Free Church of Scotland is a congregation of the national Free Church of Scotland working towards the common aims set out above. It is a Presbyterian church adhering in its worship and doctrine to the position of the Church of Scotland at the Reformation. The Free Church of Scotland has an explanatory document which explains the origins of the Church and which gives the historical background to the Church coming into being in 1843 and lists documents in which is embodied the constitution of the Church.

The congregation is authorised by the Church to have two ministers paid from central funds of the Church.

The Church building, the Rosskeen manse and the MacCallum Centre are the property of the congregation and are held under the Church's model trust deed. The Church Hall, Saltburn Manse, Ex Service Point and Ex Co-op are all held by the congregation.

The government of the Free Church of Scotland is Presbyterian and the congregation is within the Northern Presbytery.

Grant Making Policy

The congregation makes grants from its gift income to individuals and organisations whose aims are compatible with the congregation's objectives.

Review of our Achievement and Performance

During the year, the church met regularly for worship and carried out various activities in pursuit of the above stated aims.

The congregation continued its commitment to support the National Free Church of Scotland both spiritually and financially.

Review of our Achievement and Performance (cont'd)

Significant highlights, events and developments of note in the year include the following:

In relation to congregational activities:

- Morning Services were held weekly at Rosskeen Church and Evening Services at the Capstone Centre. Attendances saw a steady increase throughout the year.
- Both weekly services continued to be live-streamed through the Church's YouTube channel.
- Sunday School met regularly throughout term-time with a roll of approximately 30 children.
- YF met before service with approximately 5 teenagers.
- Three weekly prayer meetings are held, two using Zoom. The midweek in person meeting saw numbers grow across the year.
- Lunch Club continued meeting once a fortnight and is a very popular ministry with 3 local care homes taking residents along via minibus. There is soup, sandwiches and baking followed by an hour of gospel music.
- Knit and Natter met weekly and numbers grew across the year.
- Ministry in Song, an outreach of music and testimony, met monthly in the Capstone Centre.
- Youth Fellowship continued to meet fortnightly on a Saturday evening at the Capstone Centre. YF grew in the year from 4 teenagers to 11 teenagers regularly attending from a variety of congregations in the local area.
- There was a successful Easter Family Service event.
- The Food Bank continues to operate from the Capstone Centre. It is manned by volunteers and is well supported with donations from within the congregation and from the wider community. As well as helping to alleviate food poverty for those in crisis situations, the volunteers are ready to respond to other physical problems and to support clients emotionally and spiritually. They work hard to "lend a listening ear" and to signpost people to appropriate support agencies.
- The Capstone Centre continued to be used by the Northern Presbytery and the Free Church Mission Board under a licence to occupy. In December of 2024 it was agreed by the Presbytery that the NP Connect work would cease and a Church Plant (Capstone Community Church) would be officially inaugurated within the premises.
- Rosskeen Church has continued to build on its good working relationship with other congregations locally.
- [REDACTED] retained contact with various schools within the area. Ardross, Newmore, Bridgend and Milton Primaries for regular assemblies, and Coulhill Primary for the end of term services (Easter and Christmas). There were also occasional assemblies in Park Primary and South Lodge Primary (Invergordon). There were also regular assemblies in Alness and Invergordon Academies.
- Milton, Bridgend, Coulhill, Newmore and Ardross Primaries attended a 'Christmas Unwrapped' event at the Capstone Centre. These events are popular with the schools and are very successful outreach opportunities for us.
- Invergordon Academy asked Rev Calum MacMillan, in conjunction with Rev Brian Macleod (Invergordon Parish Church) to begin a weekly drop-in within the school. Since November of 2024 [REDACTED] operates this by himself due to the absence (and subsequent resignation) of [REDACTED]. Initially this operated from the school café, but has migrated to the school canteen and there are good conversations taking place (including spiritual) and relationships being built within the school community.
- [REDACTED] also did some mentoring with 2nd year boys from Invergordon Academy at the behest of the school.

Review of our Achievement and Performance (cont'd)

In relation to congregational activities:

- [REDACTED], along with two other school chaplains, [REDACTED] continued monthly 'drop-in' on the first Tuesday of each month at Alness Academy over lunchtime. It has helped develop relationships within the school, especially with the new Head Teacher.
- In December, our annual 'Carols by Candlelight' event returned and was very well attended. We raised funds for the Highland Hospice.
- We continue to work alongside other local churches and there were two Alness & District Church Collective Churches Together Services) services this year, a Good Friday Communion Service and a Community Carol Service in December. There was also a 'Big Summer Hymn Sing' event in August – a joint Church outdoor praise evening. The local Ministers also meet for a monthly fraternal for prayer and mutual encouragement.
- The women in the congregation held a number of coffee mornings raising much needed funds for a number of causes.
- The buildings and renovation team continued to look at ways to improve and maintain the church building and the Deacons Court began the process of a getting costed plans for desirable changes.
- The Church formalised the sale of the MacCallum Centre.
- [REDACTED], an independent Christian school, began using our church building as a hub for their new school in September.
- We did a congregational book study looking at 'The Compelling Community' and had good conversations from this. A sermon series was preached tying into this as well.
- Across the year the congregation was pleased to welcome 4 new members, with 3 departing – losing one member by death, one who has moved south to England and one who requested their membership to be withdrawn. That leaves a net increase of one member across the year.
- The Church received a legacy of £13,975 from [REDACTED].
- [REDACTED] took sabbatical leave in the year from May – August. Supply was provided by a variety of different people from both within and without the congregation. This was coordinated by our Minister in Training, [REDACTED].
- [REDACTED] represented Presbytery at the General Assembly in May and continued to operate as Presbytery Clerk on behalf of the Northern Presbytery.

Financial Review

Principal sources of funding

The congregation receives its funding by way of weekly offerings and Gift Aid donations.

Results for the year

The financial statements for the year are set out in pages 8 to 17. The Statement of Financial Activities on page 8 reflects net incoming resources of £89,896 (2023: net outgoing resources £11,958).

Risk Management

The Trustees assess the major risks to which the congregation is exposed on an ongoing basis and have established procedures to mitigate those that are identified as a result of these reviews.

Rosskeen Free Church of Scotland

Reserves Policy

It is the policy of the congregation to maintain unrestricted funds, i.e. funds not committed or invested in fixed assets, at a level which equates to approximately three months unrestricted expenditure. This allows sufficient funds to enable the ongoing work of the church to be maintained. The General Fund (page 16) at 31 December 2024 was surplus £171,478 (2023: £41,592).

Total reserves, including the net book value of fixed assets and balances on restricted funds amounted to £1,411,114 (2023: £1,321,218).

Structure, Governance and Management

Rosskeen Free Church of Scotland is established by Constitution. The church is a Scottish Charity (No. SC001082).

Appointment of Charity Trustees

The Kirk session exercises its discretion in determining the most appropriate method of electing new Trustees (Elders and Deacons). Any election process must involve the communicant membership of the congregation. There is no fixed term for Trusteeship. Prior to their appointment, new Trustees would have served the church for some time in various roles and would be familiar with the church’s values, its aims and objectives as well as its day-to-day operations. As part of their induction programme, new Trustees are required to understand their statutory responsibilities as well as their responsibility as elder or deacon.

Key Management Personnel Remuneration

The church is Presbyterian in government and its day to day running is undertaken by the Elders (the Kirk Session) and the Deacons (the Deacons’ court). The Deacons’ Court’s specific function relates to the material and financial business of the congregation, as well as social ministry, whereas Elders are charged with the general and spiritual oversight of the congregations. {It is accepted practice for the Ministers and Elders to also be in membership of the Deacons’ Court}. Under charity law the Deacons’ Court are deemed to be the Trustees of the Congregation. (This is distinct from the role of congregational trustees responsible only for holding property in trust).

Trustees' Responsibilities in relation to the Financial Statements

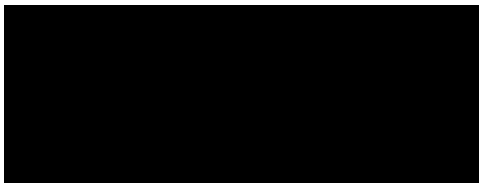

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing a trustees' annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in Scotland requires the charity trustees to prepare financial statements for each year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the applicable Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charity Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), and the provisions of the Trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the trustees on 6 June 2025 and signed on their behalf by:

Report of the Independent Examiner for the year ended 31 December 2024

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 8 to 17.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner.

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement.

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given in the accounts.

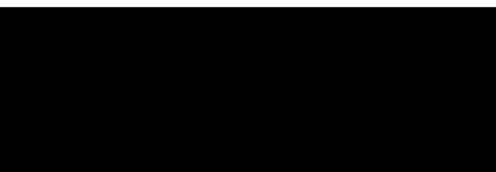

Independent examiner's statement.

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended) and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations (as amended)

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
