Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The charity is governed by its constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Potential trustee appointments are identified and nominated by existing trustees from people who are already involved in the charity and understand and support the vision of the charity. The appointment of the trustee is put to a simple majority vote if no consensus is reached.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The primary purpose of the organisation is to advance Christianity by focusing on improving the lives of people as individuals, members of respective family units and communities. This we hope to achieve even as we concurrently redefine media from being just a passive information sharing medium through communicating the love of Christ in music & encouraging messages educating our listeners on making the right lifestyle choices and empowering them to believe in their capacity to do good and great things.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

- (a) Knowledge sharing & discussion sessions
- (b) Motivational talk sessions
- (c) Inspirational music sessions
- (d) Broadcasting skills development
