The Trustees have pleasure in presenting their report and the financial statements for the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024. The Trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and the Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit, including the guidance 'public benefit: running a charity (PB2)'.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

This report highlights the church's principal activities, achievements during 2024, and plans for the future. Our mission remains focused on sharing the Christian faith, serving the community, and fostering growth and development within both the church and wider society.

Principal Activity

The church exists to nurture Christian faith and values among its members and the wider community in Edinburgh. Our work prioritises alleviating poverty, advancing religious practice, promoting citizenship, encouraging community development, supporting recreational activities, and fostering religious and racial harmony. These aims are pursued through regular worship, targeted outreach, and practical support such as food distribution, assistance for older people, and initiatives that promote the spiritual well-being of the community.

Review of Activities for 2024

Throughout 2024, the church remained faithful to its mission through a wide range of events and initiatives:

- Special Theme Sundays: Services and celebrations were held on occasions such as Mother's Day, Father's Day, Youth week, Children's day and a special choir concert.
- Couples Programme: This ministry strengthened family life by encouraging lasting relationships rooted in Christian values, contributing to stronger households and communities.
- Teens Made for Exploits: Now in its fourth year, this weekly programme continued to empower teenagers through open discussions on spiritual and practical topics, equipping them for life's challenges.

Community Impact

The church also continued to extend its reach beyond its congregation, with several community-focused initiatives in 2024:

- Helping Hands Project: Dedicated to supporting the homeless, this initiative redistributed surplus supermarket food, reducing waste while meeting urgent needs. In 2024, additional funding from Nando's enabled us to expand this work, and we were also able to make a clothing donation to the Sick Kids Hospital, which was warmly received.
- Evangelism: Hope and encouragement were conveyed through door-to-door engagements, campus outreach initiatives, and the distribution of messages within the community.
- Music in the Park: A public outreach event that shared the gospel through music while creating a welcoming and uplifting community atmosphere.

Workforce

Approximately 100 volunteers gave their time and talents across different ministries, including choir, ushering, production, hospitality, welfare, children's ministry, and the Helping Hands Project. Their commitment was essential to the success of the church's wide-ranging activities.

Attendance

Both physical and virtual attendance increased throughout the year, reflecting stronger engagement within the congregation and wider community.

Future Plans for 2025

Looking forward, the church seeks to build on these achievements and broaden its impact through the following priorities:

- Worship and Discipleship: Expanding small group Bible studies and discipleship classes to nurture spiritual growth.
- Community Outreach: Enhancing support for vulnerable groups through food and clothing drives, while developing stronger partnerships with local charities.
- Teens Development: Strengthening the Teens Made for Exploits programme, introducing mentorship and entrepreneurship opportunities.
- Cultural and Social Engagement: Hosting events to encourage inclusion, cross-cultural understanding, and community harmony.

Through these initiatives, the church remains committed to deepening faith, extending care, and making a lasting difference in both the congregation and the wider community.

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 ('the 2005 Act') and the Charities and Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). You are satisfied that your charity is not required by charity law to be audited and have chosen instead to have an independent examination.

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts as carried out under section 44 (1)(c) of the 2005 Act. In carrying out my examination I have followed the requirements of Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

Independent examiners qualified statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Charity as required by section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended); or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Regulation 8 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Since the Charity's has prepared its accounts on an accruals basis and is also registered in Scotland, your examiner must be a member of a body listed in Regulation 11(2) of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). I confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination by virtue of my membership of , which is one of the listed bodies.
