BACK Free Church of Scotland

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015).

Aims and Affiliation

Back Free Church of Scotland is a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland working towards the common aims set out below. It is a Presbyterian church adhering in its worship and doctrine to the position of the Church of Scotland at the Reformation. The Free Church of Scotland has an explanatory document which explains the origins of the Church and which gives the historical background to the Church coming into being in 1843 and lists documents in which is embodied the constitution of the Church. The document is available on request from the Free Church of Scotland, 15 North Bank St., The Mound, Edinburgh, EH1 2LS.

The Free Church of Scotland currently has over 100 congregations in Scotland, as well as one in London and four in North America, and sister Churches founded by mission work in India, Peru and South Africa. The Church also has a seminary in Edinburgh for the training of ministers and other Christian workers and sustains an extensive missionary programme relative to the size of the church. The principal activity of the Church is the conduct of public worship and associated matters in the context of local congregations.

Dating from 1843 but with its roots in the Reformation, the Free Church of Scotland owes its distinctive title to its historical struggle to remain 'free' from state interference in its internal affairs. It has close and active relations with many other Reformed churches of Jesus Christ throughout the world and stands firmly in the tradition which accepts the Bible in its entirety as the Word of God and, therefore, derives its forms of teaching, worship, ministry and government from it. The main emphasis of our worship is the preaching of the gospel - the good news of a free and sovereign salvation through Jesus Christ alone.

The congregation is authorised by the Church to have a minister paid from central funds of the Church.

The church building and the minister's manse are the property of the congregation and are held under the Church's model trust deed.

The congregation makes grants from its gift income to individuals and organisations whose aims are compatible with the congregation's objectives.

Achievements and Performance

During the year, the church met regularly for worship and carried out various activities in pursuit of the above stated aims. The minister was responsible for arranging weekly services, which normally include at least two services each Sunday and four meetings during the week. The church services are streamed on-line on the congregation's Youtube channel. Membership of the congregation was 207 at 31 December 2024 (2023: 204).

The congregation continued its commitment to support the National Free Church of Scotland both spiritually and financially.

Financial review

Principal sources of funding

The congregation receives its funding by way of weekly offerings and Gift Aid donations.

Results for the year

The financial statements for the year are set out in pages 6 to 15. The Statement of Financial Activities on page 6 reflects net outgoing resources of £(14,361) (2023 – £(13,888)).

Reserves

It is the policy of the congregation to maintain unrestricted funds at a level which equates to approximately three months unrestricted expenditure. This allows sufficient funds to enable the ongoing work of the church to be maintained. The General Fund (page 14) at 31 December 2024 amounted to £52,724 (2023 - £124,247). The Trustees are grateful that during 2024 this was achieved and exceeded the desired level through the ongoing support of the congregation. The hall Designated Fund balance at the year-end was £2,055 (2023: £595). Total reserves, including the balances on restricted funds, amounted to £362,465 (2023 - £376,826).

Grant Making Policy

The congregation makes grants from its gift income to individuals and organisations whose aims are compatible with the congregation's objectives.

Statement on Risk

The Trustees assess the major risks to which the congregation is exposed on an ongoing basis and have established procedures to mitigate those that are identified as a result of these reviews.

Trustees and Office Bearers

Structure, Governance and Management

Back Free Church of Scotland is established by Constitution. The church is a Scottish Charity (No. SC038164).

The government of the Free Church of Scotland is Presbyterian and the congregation is within the Presbytery of The Western Isles.

Trustees and Office Bearers

The church is Presbyterian in government and its day-to-day running is undertaken by the Elders (the Kirk Session) and the Deacons (the Deacons' Court). The Deacons' Court's specific function relates to the material and financial business of the congregation, whereas Elders are charged with the general and spiritual oversight of the congregations. It is accepted practice for the Minister and Elders to also be in membership of the Deacons' Court. Under charity law the Deacons' Court is deemed to be the Trustees of the Congregation. (This is distinct from the role of congregational trustees responsible only for holding property in trust).

Appointment of Charity Trustees

The Kirk Session exercises its discretion in determining the most appropriate method of electing new Trustees (Elders and Deacons). Any election process must involve the communicant membership of the congregation. There is no fixed term for Trusteeship. Prior to their appointment, new Trustees would have served the church for some time in various roles and would be familiar with the church's values, its aims and objectives as well as its day-to-day operations. As part of their induction programme, new Trustees are required to understand their statutory responsibilities as well as their responsibility as elder or deacon.

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages six to fifteen.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanation from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given in the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

14 Volunteers

In common with all congregations of the Free Church of Scotland the congregation benefits from the contribution made by volunteers who give their time and talents willingly for the benefit of the Church. The areas of congregational life which rely on the contribution of volunteers are many and varied and much of the activity would be unable to continue were it not for the commitment shown.

16 Contribution to Central Funds

The system for congregational targets to central church funds allows for a proportion of ordinary income to be retained by the congregations with each congregation then contributing towards their ministerial costs and an administration levy before applying a fixed percentage contribution to any remaining funds. Back Free Church achieved 101.3% (2023: 101.3%) of its target and also contributed a further £6,000 (2023: £6,000) to the Free Church of Scotland for missions work. The calculation of the congregation's contribution for 2024 is as follows:-
