CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT

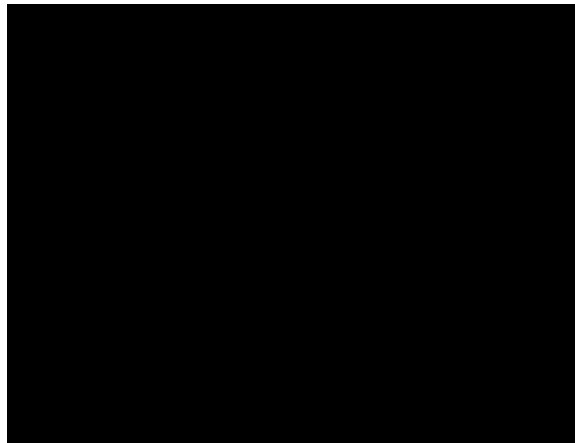

YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2024

Establishment

Efforts to establish SAFIR as a Charity commenced early 2016. We started preparation of the Constitution and then application forms were sent to OSCR in June 2016. We also opened a charity bank account with the Bank of Scotland. OSCR approved our application and SAFIR was registered and granted status as a SCIO on 12 September 2016. SAFIR held its first Annual General Meeting on 18 January 2018 at MENA Trust Centre, 83-85 Lister St, Glasgow, G4 0BZ. In order to achieve its mission, SAFIR has held various events and activities since its establishment.

Appointments

At its Annual General Meeting held on Saturday 1st June 2024. SAFIR elected the following persons as the new Board Trustees:

Activities

This year SAFIR continued its activities and managed to hold numerous social gatherings including: (1) a Syrian Families Gathering was held on 16 December 2023 2-6; (2) four Ramadan Iftar (breakfast) gatherings were held on 16th March 2024, 24th March 2024, 30th March and 6th April 2024; (3) the first Eid gathering was held on Saturday 13th April 2024; and (4) a Summer Gathering on 21st July, 2024. All of these gatherings were held at the Sherbrooke Mossspark Parish Church. These gatherings were very much welcomed by SAFIR members and the wider community, as evidenced by the large number of people who attended. The attendees each brought a favourite (mostly Syrian) dish for sharing, as well as traditional sweets and desserts. Whilst the participants were enjoying the food and entertainment, SAFIR distributed a significant number of presents to the children who attended. At some of these gatherings there were face painting activities, games for the children, quizzes for the adults, and a stall for donated clothes.

As in previous years, Glasgow's Spirit of Christmas donated a large number of presents – more than 70 gift bags of presents – to the Syrian children and SAFIR distributed these wonderful presents to the children with special needs as well as to the wider Syrian community. All children, who received presents, and their families were overjoyed and overwhelmed by the generosity of the people of Glasgow and GSOC. They requested that SAFIR deeply thank 'Glasgow's Spirit of Christmas for their kindness on their behalf.' The Board would like to warmly and deeply thank Glasgow's Spirit of Christmas and its volunteers for their generosity and kindness. SAFIR would also like to thank SAFIR's Board members, who helped in distributing these presents, during the Christmas period, for their great efforts and assistance.

Final evaluation of SAFIR in 2023/24

During 2023/24 SAFIR performed as well as could be expected under the present circumstances, especially, given that SAFIR has very little income, which mostly consists of small donations from a very few individuals and small amount of cash generated by attendees contributions. However, despite this limited income, SAFIR has made very good progress, including holding large social gatherings, distributing Christmas and other presents to the families and children and maintaining good online contact with our members.

The fact that we have been able to achieve this significant output testifies to the success and dedication of SAFIR's Board members' and volunteers endeavours, despite our limited resources.

Next steps

We hope to hold more events in 2024/2025 and the dates and details of these events will be arranged and shared in due course. During these events we will continue our efforts to arrange 'sharing experience' sessions and 'brain storming' and orientation sessions as well as integration projects to be taken on board by SAFIR in its future work.

In collaboration with MENA Trust, [REDACTED] on behalf of SAFIR, will continue to deliver more teaching and training courses on Islamic Family Law, Islamic Law of Inheritance and other Islamic law branches, with the hope of getting CPD accreditation for these courses. As stated above, in addition to fulfilling SAFIR's objective of advancing education, these courses will provide excellent platforms for enhancing integration in Scotland.

The Chairperson would like to thank all members, volunteers and supporters for their time and effort during this last year which has been another challenging year for SAFIR.

TRUSTEES REPORT

Report of the Trustees for the year ended 30 SEPTEMBER 2024

The Trustees present their report together with the financial statements of the Charity for the year ended 30 September 2024. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out on page 10.

Charitable Status

SAFIR is a Scottish Charity having the reference SC046838.

Constitution and Administration

The Charity was formed in accordance with the constitution of 26 April 2016.

The constitution provides for the appointment of the Trustees. The number of Trustees at any time should never be less than three. The Trustees who served during the year ended 30 September 2024 are set out on page 2 of the financial statements.

Objectives

The aims and objectives of the Charity are contained in the constitution. The objectives of the SAFIR are:

- To prevent and relieve poverty through initiating and facilitating humanitarian assistance and support to refugees and asylum seekers, in particular Syrian refugees and asylum seekers, in Scotland, UK and abroad.
- To advance health and wellbeing for refugees and asylum seekers, in particular Syrian refugees and asylum seekers, and their families through promoting health awareness, training initiatives, volunteering, physical and mental wellbeing support programmes.
- To advance education through offering educational activities and training opportunities as well as empowering parental engagement and participation in education, providing English Language support for refugees and asylum seekers and their families.
- To promote equality and diversity through celebration of cultural heritage and inclusion in multicultural Scotland and provide empowerment and capacity building support as a means of tackling isolation and promoting integration and active citizenship.

YEAR ENDED 30 SEPTEMBER 2024

Financial Review

Our only source of funding during the year was that of donations made to the Charity.

In the year ended 30 September 2024, the donations received were £1,440 (2023 - £330), and expenses totalling £799 (2023 - £354) were made.

At the end of the year there were unrestricted funds of £1,129 (2023 - £488) held in the Charity's bank account.

Reserves Policy

It is the policy of the Charity to maintain unrestricted funds, which are the free reserves of the Charity, at a positive balance. From time to time funds may be restricted when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for a specific purpose.

Trustees Remuneration

The Trustees did not receive any remuneration from the Charity during the year.

Risk Management

The Trustees have reviewed the major risks which the Charity faces and confirm that systems have been established to mitigate these risks.

Trustees responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

The law applicable to charities in Scotland requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the Charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the Trustees should follow best practice and:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently; make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Charity will continue in business.

Trustees responsibilities in relation to the financial statements (continued...)

The Trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and enable it to ascertain the financial position of the Charity and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006, and the provisions of the trust deed.

The trustees are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
