TRUSTEES REPORT
YEAR ENDING 30.11.2024

Fool On is a charity operating in the North Lanarkshire community and our studio in Coatbridge offering free performing arts sessions to those aged 16 and over to encourage creativity to boost self-esteem and confidence and build up resilience while recovering from mental health illness.

Throughout the year, we delivered free weekly performing arts workshops in Wishaw, Bellshill, Cumbernauld and Motherwell. These sessions have supported individuals in recovery by helping them rebuild confidence, form social connections and regain a sense of purpose.

Our programme includes comedy, creative writing, guitar tutoring, karaoke, songwriting and keyboard workshops, offering members a broad range of creative opportunities.

In Bellshill, our dedicated comedy group continues to run every Tuesday evening, led by professional comedian [REDACTED]. This group remains one of our most established and well-attended sessions. We also operate a weekly guitar tutoring group, supporting members to develop their musical skills in a structured and accessible way.

Members from our main groups and from the comedy programme achieved significant milestones this year, performing at both the Glasgow Comedy Festival and the Edinburgh Fringe. These opportunities highlight the progress made by individuals who have developed their confidence through participation in Fool On's activities.

The charity continues to hold regular performance events where members can showcase singing, poetry, comedy and acoustic sets to peers, family and friends. These events form an important part of our recovery-based approach, offering encouragement, achievement and positive reinforcement.

We have continued to operate our Coatbridge studio, which provides two rehearsal and recording rooms. The studio is used for practice, collaboration and the recording of original music, and remains a central resource for members seeking structured creative progression.

In addition to our weekly sessions, Fool On has maintained regular outreach performances in NHS mental health wards and care homes across Lanarkshire, providing live music, entertainment and social interaction for individuals who may not otherwise access the arts.

Fool On remains committed to supporting people in recovery by using the performing arts to promote connection, self-expression and improved mental wellbeing.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Fool On (SCIO)

I report on the accounts for the period 1 December 2023 to 30 November 2024 set out in the attached accounts.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention :

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
