

Constitution

The Charity is an unincorporated association. It is governed by its constitution which was adopted on 31st March 1981 and last amended on 30th August 2024. The Association was granted charitable status on 15th March 2017.

Appointment of Trustees

The Committee will consist of 8 to 12 members of the Club who, unless otherwise provided below will be elected at the AGM.

The senior officers of the Committee and trustee's *ex officio*s of the Club shall be the President, Secretary and Treasurer. Each senior officer may be assisted by a junior officer (Vice President, Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer, respectively). All offices will be honorary. Where a junior office is filled, the presumption will be that the junior officer will eventually succeed the senior officer. No member shall occupy more than one office at a time. The term of office will be for three years.

The Committee will be responsible for keeping the premises insured, secure, furnished and maintained.

OBJECTIVES & ACTIVITIES

Charitable purposes

The Club shall promote creative arts and crafts, including (but need not be limited to) painting and craftwork, through meetings, tuition, demonstrations, workshops, exhibitions and outings, in Dalgety Bay and nearby communities.

The Committee shall manage the membership roll to ensure that the number of members does not exceed what is practical for the Club.

Any person aged 18 years or older residing in Dalgety Bay or a nearby community may apply to become a member of the Club.

Activities

Applying principles of equality, openness and fairness, the Club will aim to involve every member in its activities and ensure sustainable, quality provision for all. No member will receive less favourable treatment than any other on the grounds of gender, age, disability, ethnicity, religion, parental or marital status, or social or sexual preference.
