Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

Sled Dog welfare is run by Trustees (a management committee) governed by its Constitution which established Sled Dog Welfare as an unincorporated association. The Constitution was adopted by the Members of Sled Dog welfare on 7 May 2006.
The constitution was drawn up by Cathy Batt.
The Constitution is in a format approved by the Office of the Scottish Charities Regulator (OSCR).
The Constitution of Sled Dog Welfare details the governances concerning the charity's purposes and administrative arrangements.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

All Trustee appointments are made for one year only at each Annual General Meeting (AGM).

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To promote the welfare of sled dogs in the UK by raising awareness of the issues affecting sled dog welfare and raising funds to be used to benefit sled dogs through recognised welfare, rescue and rehoming schemes.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Raising funds through various means either from attendance fees, selling merchandise, collecting donations etc

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Since Covid and lockdown, many venues we attended for displays have ceased. Most of the committee members dogs have either gotten too old to participate or have died over the past few years due to old age and have stopped volunteering. The charity is now trying to sell merchandise and is setting up an online shop and looking to attend various events with stalls to collect funds while recruiting new committee members.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Details of any deficit

Deficit this year of £4 due to donations, and domain name renewal

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Other optional information

- No remuneration was made to any Trustee in 2024/25.
- The charity has no contingent liabilities or obligations as at 31st August 2025

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
