Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

Seat Spot will encourage Retail Outlets, Shopping Centres, Council Buildings, other Businesses and Public Buildings throughout the UK and NI to meet the individual needs of all their customers, especially those experiencing mobility and fatigue issues. This will enable every customer to have the confidence that they will be able to go shopping like everyone else knowing that a seat is available if they need it

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Encouraging businesses to become a seat spot via face to face contact
 Encouraging community premises to become a seat spot via both face to face, verbal and written communication
 Encouraging large chains and government bodies to become a seat spot via written communications
 Maintaining social media channels to raise awareness

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Commissioned external research to support our missing and work towards societal change
Recruited volunteers through attending recruitment fairs
Grew seat spots from 20 to 37 including partnerships with the City of Edinburgh Council and Salvation Army shops
Strengthened our social media presence through specialist volunteer effortsOur

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Our aim is to have less than £1000 in reserves

Details of any deficit

A small deficit was incurred for the financial year but reserves were enough to cover it. We are aiming to seek more funding for this financial year.

Donated facilities and services (if any)

We are able to use the premises of Abbeyhill Baptist Church as our address
