Report of the Trustees
for the Year Ended 31 December 2025

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in policy. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

Services of worship are held in Straiton Parish Church each Sunday at 12 noon and are open to non-members of the congregation. The Sacrament of Holy Communion is celebrated on the first Sundays of June and November each year. Baptisms, weddings and funeral services take place as arranged.

Throughout the year, special family and dedication services take place and use is made of the church for musical evenings which are open to all. In addition, the church is made available to non-members for weddings. At present, there is no Sunday school within the Church and, although it remains a difficult task, the Kirk Session's major objective will continue, in the coming years, to find a way of restoring this important work of the Church, advancing Christ's Kingdom to the young people of the community.

The Church in Straiton works closely with other organisations in the village and wider community and has an active involvement with these organisations in various communal activities. Church members are well-represented on the village Hall Committee (management), the School Parents' Council and other local agencies. The Minister is ex officio a Trustee of the village hall.

The minister attends many local events and is widely known to both members and non-members. Due to a new school policy, the minister is more active as School Chaplain and the potential for a closer link between Church and primary school is most encouraging. Church services with the children participating continue to take place three/four times during the school year. The schoolchildren are also coming to the Church for classwork, where they learn something of the Church's history, and undertake artwork and other work relating to their studies.

The Minister continues to play an important part in the wider work of the Church through his involvement with the Scottish Church Society and the Church Service Society - both long-established Church of Scotland associations.

Achievements and Performance

The following is a summary of the Church's Achievements and Performance in 2025, a year in which the Church once again proved to be a significant place of Christian witness for the rural parish it seeks to serve.

In 2025 congregational worship continued uninterrupted. This still follows the pattern of The Christian Year, highlighting the principal seasons and events relevant to the Church calendar. Special occasions (mainly local) were also recognised. The Sacrament of Baptism was administered on one occasion, but there were three Marriage Services. The Sacrament of Holy Communion, reinstated after Covid in November 2023, was celebrated in June and November 2025. The annual Good Friday service, held in partnership with Kirkmichael Church, took place in Straiton Church in April 2025. The Christmas Eve service was held in 2025 at Straiton Church, but will be hosted at Kirkmichael Church in 2026.

Short meditations continue to be posted weekly on the internet, and are sent out to elders and others on a Sunday morning, with a covering letter from the Minister, the Rev. W.G. Jones. There are about 40 people on the list of recipients, and are 'forwarded' to others beyond the parish. Messages of appreciation from overseas have been received. These weekly meditations and prayers have also been acknowledged by housebound members, and by others who, for various reasons, are unable to attend regular Sunday worship.

The Sunday service continues to follow its traditional pattern. Though all Covid restrictions have long been lifted, every effort is undertaken to ensure that the building is as safe as possible for worshippers. Attendances of 30 and 35 at a 'normal' Sunday service have been noted. The Church continued to be used for funeral services in 2025, and occasionally with exceptionally large congregations.

Pastoral work continued throughout 2025, with regular visitations to homes, hospitals and care centres, and elsewhere as required. The Minister continues to interview people at the Manse, and in 2025 several people took advantage of this opportunity. The setting of the Manse ensures a high measure of privacy, though the Church is also used for this purpose if preferred.

In 2025 the Minister was required to take wedding and funeral services in neighbouring parishes, especially where there is no resident Minister, or where the Minister or Locum was on leave from pastoral duties for medical or other reasons. This is now a routine occurrence, with the shortage of ministerial personnel within the Church of Scotland.

As in previous years, the Church continued with the annual Blythswood Care Shoe Box Appeal in partnership with Kirkmichael Church, and a total of 103 shoe boxes were gathered for this project. New toys were gathered in at Straiton for Christmas 2024, for the children's charity Night Before Christmas, based at Annbank, near Ayr. It was decided in 2024 to donate the toys to another charity, also based nearby, and this continued at Christmas 2025. The enthusiasm for these projects was in no way diminished by the current cost-of-living crisis, and the response was extremely encouraging. The gifts at the charity's headquarters in Annbank were most welcome and appreciated.

School visits continued in 2025, with the Minister undertaking or assisting with class or project work. Occasional services are held in the Church; otherwise the School Hall is the preferred venue.

The Church Guild continued to meet in 2025 on a monthly basis. Attendance and support have been most gratifying, and the transition from evening to afternoon meetings has been most successful. The Guild is open to members and non-members, and to anyone with an interest in a particular subject being discussed. The Guild continued to be well-supported in 2025.

On 1st October 2022, Ayr Presbytery was absorbed into the new Presbytery of the South West, and ceased to exist as an independent entity. For thirty-seven years, the Minister had played a significant part in committee work, but felt he should step down and allow other members of Presbytery to staff the committees. The Minister is now much more committed to local matters, and remains a Trustee of the village hall, as well as an active member of the Hall Committee which oversees its management.

Presbytery Planning for the future started in September 2021, with representatives from neighbouring congregations coming together to agree a mission-based plan for the future. It is envisaged that Straiton, Kirkmichael, Crosshill, Maybole and Kirkoswald congregations will unite to form a new parish, with a different form of ministerial arrangement. This change will only be completed when the Rev. W.G. Jones demits office. The Church is now in a deferred union with the recently-created North Carrick Parish, together with its sister Church at Kirkmichael. A minister was inducted in September 2025 to serve the parish of North Carrick in the first instance.

In June 2024 the Rev. W.G. Jones marked 40 years as a Minister of the Church of Scotland, and 40 years in this parish in October 2025. This took the form of a joint service with Kirkmichael Church, held in Straiton Church, with presentations and other tributes, followed by lunch in the McCandlish Hall, which was a most enjoyable celebratory occasion.

In 2025 the Church made every effort to remain a place of Christian witness, and a sign of God's presence in the community. The pre-pandemic goodwill and generosity have continued, and are gratefully acknowledged by the Trustees. A return to fundraising events has taken place – the annual Sponsored Walk was held in June 2025 - and the Church made all payments to central funds in 2025, as well as other financial commitments – a clear indication of its ongoing witness in economically challenging times. It is hoped that a more settled programme of fundraising and stewardship promotion will take place in 2026.

In Memoriam

The Kirk Session is aware that during 2025 the congregation and the wider community were bereft of several well-known and much-loved people, who were generous to the Church, as they were generous in their friendship. To their families and friends, and to all who have lost loved ones in 2025, the Kirk Session offers its deepest sympathy, assuring them of the continuing thoughts and prayers of Straiton (St. Cuthbert's) Parish Church.

The Kirk Session expresses its sincere thanks to all who in any way support the Church and maintain its prominence in the parish.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The trustees have reviewed their Reserves Policy and have agreed to retain a minimum level in reserve in the General Fund equating to at least three months' average general expenditure.

At 31 December 2025, this minimum level in reserve was exceeded. This policy, however, remains a challenge to the trustees, although they are aware that as a Kirk Session, its responsibility for temporal as well as spiritual care, extends to the church and its provinces. Therefore, it is prudent to ensure that sufficient funds are held in reserve, to cover essential repairs.

Further details on the restricted funds and reserves are provided in the Notes to the financial statements.

Reserves and Fund Balances

At the year end the Church held unrestricted cash funds of £35,432 of which £10,626 has been designated for fabric matters.

The balance of £24,406 held in General Funds is considered to be sufficient to support our income from direct giving.

The Church also held £8,200 in restricted funds which have been provided for the purposes specified in the notes.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Constitution (Unitary Form).
The Congregation Number of the Church is 100594.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery.

Organisational structure

The Kirk Session, in accordance with the Unitary Constitution, is in control of both spiritual and temporal affairs of the congregation and meets regularly during the year. The Kirk Session is chaired by the moderator who is the minister, or in certain circumstances may be any other such qualified person appointed and authorised to act as interim moderator by the Presbytery of Ayr. Specific responsibilities are delegated to the Finance Committee and the Property Committee whose members are normally members of the Kirk Session and make full report to the Kirk Session.

Risk management

In common with many Churches, the Kirk Session is aware of the risks associated with an ageing congregation. Without the introduction of new members, in time, the membership roll will fall, leading to a reduction in attendance at services, pressure on fewer individuals to take on tasks and responsibilities and a potential drop in income.

To address this, the Kirk Session actively encourages non-members to attend services and other activities held in the community. It is felt that this regular contact with non-members can lead to their involvement.

Volunteers

The role of Volunteers in the Church is acknowledged. Their support and assistance throughout the year in helping at services, organising fund-raising events and dealing with fabric matters, greatly enhances the life of the Church.

The time and skills provided by volunteers is not financially valued in these accounts but is acknowledged and appreciated.

Financial Review

National Stewardship

In 2015 the Kirk Session prepared a stewardship booklet as part of the Church of Scotland's National Stewardship Campaign, which was circulated to all members. This booklet promoted a healthy discussion among Elders and members of the congregation, and the results are being carefully assessed by the Trustees. Thus far the results have been encouraging.

Income

The Charity's main source of income is by direct giving, through weekly offerings and donations, including gift aid. Regular fund-raising events are also held within the community.

There is a difficulty in continuing to ask those from a small rural community to support fund raising events. All events continue to be supported extremely well by our members and the community in general. The Kirk Session appreciates this support and in particular gives thanks to all those organisations and individuals who together made significant donations to the on-going work of the Church here in Straiton.

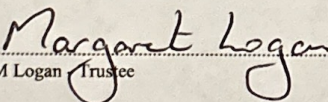

Expenditure

The Church building is an A listed property and as previously reported requires some attention in specific areas. The trustees' main concern is to maintain and improve the property and to provide facilities for congregation and visitors, within the very tight parameters that this status brings.

The trustees as ever remain concerned regarding the future role and support for country churches more especially in these times of financial restraint and austerity measures. The Kirk Session is encouraged to note that our Church of St Cuthbert here in Straiton is fully supported by its members and the local community and remains a strong focal point within that community.

The trustees will always seek to protect and maintain the Church's unique position, as a service and pivotal part of the community by continuing to glorify God, work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom and bring the ordinances of religion to our local community here in Straiton.

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2025 set out on pages seven to sixteen.

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations: and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
