Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The building is held in trust for the purpose of a public hall for the use of the inhabitants of the village of Scalloway and its environs without distinction of political, religious or other opinions, including use for meetings, lectures and classes, and for other forms of recreation and leisure time occupation, with the object of improving the condition of life for the said inhabitants.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The hall is used for:

- Parent and toddler group
- Community Council meetings
- Room hire for private meetings, other charitable organisations, public consultations, voting etc
- Regular users such as the Shetland Dog Club and Karate Club

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Scalloway Public Hall has now got back to the new normal following Covid, It has been a busy year again with the hall being used for a variety of different activities and events.

The regular local groups have continued to use the hall including the Scalloway parent and toddler group, the Shetland Dogs Club and the Karate Club.

The hall was glad to welcome back the Scalloway Fire Festival in January, this provides vital income to the hall for the year and is always a very successful event.

The hall continues to be a popular venue for birthday parties, with it being booked many weekends in the year to host these.

The committee will continue to fundraise and look at gaining funding to refurbish the hall where possible. Running the hall is an ongoing challenge for the local community relying on good will from volunteers who give their time to benefit others.
