Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To widows or unmarried daughters not under sixty years of age while they remain unmarried and continue to reside in Hawick of the surrounding district within a radius of five miles or thereby, who through no fault of their own, or of those whose duty it is to make provision for them, are in really necessitous circumstances, a preference being given to deserving indigent widows or daughters (who have seen better days) of persons who were connected with the building and kindred trades and who had long resided in Hawick, not more than one member of a family being eligible at the same time, declaring that the trustees shall always be the sole judges of the eligibility of applicants and of their possession of the necessary qualifications and that no applicant claiming to possess the necessary qualifications shall be entitled to require the trustees to make payment of an annuity to such applicant or to state the grounds of their refusal to do so.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

To pay an annuity to those persons eligible.
