Trustee recruitment and appointment

Charity trusteeship is open to any person ages 16 or over; and/or any individual who has been nominated for membership by an unincorporated organisation; and/or any corporate body that subscribes to the purposes of the organisation and wishes to see them fulfilled.

Any person, nominated individual or body who/which wishes to become a charity trustee must sign a written application for charity trusteeship; and for a corporate body, that application must be signed by an appropriately authorised officer of that body who will remain as the representative of that corporate body until such time as the corporate body informs the Board otherwise.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

To support people who are dying and alone, and those with families.
To deliver end of life care package/gift to help families caring for a loved one at home. To support people who are grieving. To help change the way we care for our dying in the community, and nationally.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Support people who are dying through offering one to one support and then vigiling support in the final few days. To offer bereavement support through one to one support and through peer support facilitated at our bereavement support groups.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

We took on our first premises and our referrals more than tripled, we built stronger relationships with local GPs and other healthcare workers and organisations.

We continued to expand our services and offered a wider range of support groups including a drama group, French language group, women's group, youth group and bereaved parents group.

We have continued building our Sandy's Toolbox delivering end of care packages to those who have families, or friends, caring for them.

We took on a fourth member of staff.

Financial review
