Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

(a) to advance the Christian faith (in accordance with the Articles of Faith appearing in the Memorandum of Association) in the United Kingdom and the world as the directors of the Charity may from time to time think fit;

(b) to advance the production and distribution of tracts and other evangelistic or edifying materials/literatures in accordance with Christian principles in United Kingdom, and the world, by such means as the directors of the Charity may consider appropriate;

(c) to advance education, evangelistic training and conferences in accordance with Christian principles by such means as the directors of the Charity may consider appropriate including (but not limited to) establishing and operating any evangelistic training and conferences establishment or establishments in the United Kingdom and the world as the trustees may from time to time think fit;

(d) to conduct or support or advance Christian missions' ministry through revival meetings or prayer meetings, or crusade meetings in accordance with Christian principles in the United Kingdom, and the world as the directors of the Charity may from time to time think fit. This may include:

- I I. giving to support mission/church development work and relief of the poor; and
- II II. overseas mission trips.

(e) to support persons who are in conditions of need or hardship or who are minor or orphan or aged or widowed or sick or foreigners and to relieve through prayers or other social means the distress caused thereby in the United Kingdom and the world as the directors of the Charity may from time to time think fit;

(f) to support the provision of community facilities, so long as they are all regarded as relating to the main work of the Charity.

- I I. These will normally involve some combination of worship, Christian teaching/evangelism and prayer with some of the worship meetings also possibly involving children's work/Sunday school.
- II II. They will be without any charge (although there may well be a freewill offering or collection during the meeting) the worship meetings will be open to any member of the public who wants to attend.
- III III. The smaller midweek meetings may be open to all or may be for those in or connected with the charity who are invited.

- I IV. There will normally also be some evangelistic meetings for non-Christians.

(g) to promote and fulfil such other charitable purposes beneficial to the community in the United Kingdom, and the world as the directors of the Charity may from time to time think fit.

(2) The company's objects are restricted to those set out in article 4. (but subject to clause (3) of article 4).

(3) The company may (subject to first obtaining the consent of the Commission) add to, remove or alter the statement of the company's objects in article 4(1); on any occasion when it does so, it must give notice to the registrar of companies and the amendment will not be effective until that notice is registered on the register of companies.
