Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document	Rosyth & District Musical Society is a registered unincorporated association, with charity number SC045149 and is governed by its constitution.
Trustee recruitment and appointment	All Trustees are appointed or reappointed by the membership at our Annual General Meeting which is held in June of each year.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes	Our purposes as recorded in our constitution are to provide advancement of education in arts, heritage and culture by the means of public performance and other related activities, our aim is to present at least one musical production per year. To further promote live theatre for our local community. To enable all members of our society to participate in all aspects of performing arts
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	Performance of the Footloose in Carnegie Hall, Dunfermline

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period	The performance of Footloose, was our annual offering to the local community in and around Dunfermline consisting of five performances, beginning Wednesday 25th March ending Saturday 28th March 2026. The proceeds from the performances go towards funding our next year's Musical Show. We also carried out various fundraising events during the year to help fund some of the costs involved with the performance, most of these were well attended and proved a successful way of funding some of the show. Our members also pay an annual subscription fee. None of the Trustees received any remuneration for their contributions during the year.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	Any reserves are held in the Charity's bank account and put towards the following years show. Revenues vary from year to year but with hard work and the fundraising efforts, we made sure we have a good start towards our next year's performance.
Details of any deficit	n/a
